

What is Going on in Society.

at dinner Thursday evening. Covers were laid for 10.
 Mrs. George W. Martin, 1415 East First street, entertained at a luncheon last week for Mrs. I. D. Burgh of Minneapolis. Covers were laid for eight.

The great society feature of this week will be the charity ball, Tuesday evening, in the Spaulding. The fact that this is given for the little inmates of the Children's home attracts many that do not care much for social functions, but wish to aid in this good work. The hostesses will be Mrs. J. N. McKindley, Mrs. C. E. Lum, Mrs. Houston, Mrs. H. H. Myers, Mrs. F. H. White and Mrs. Van Loq, who will receive the guests and the assisting hostesses will be the members of the board—Mesdames J. H. Crowley, T. F. Cole, J. B. Richards, L. S. Loeb, T. W. Hoopes, R. N. Marble, M. R. Baldwin, J. H. McLean, John Panton, J. P. Gordon, C. S. Wilson, S. H. Holden, A. C. Hubbell, A. D. Goodman and T. J. Davis.

In club circles there will be the usual round of meetings and to club women the lectures of Professor Maria Sanford, beginning Friday will be of especial interest. The Evening Shakespeare class will meet tomorrow evening, and so will the Duluth Guards, who will entertain at a card party. More important than either is the monthly meeting of the executive board of the Twentieth Century club, which will be held tomorrow morning. The Literature class of the Twentieth Century club, will meet Tuesday. Friday morning Henry F. Green's lecture on the Fernian war will be heard by the members of the Twentieth Century club, and that evening there will be two socials, one in the Pilgrim Congregational church and the other in the Knights of Pythias hall, and at which the Old Maids of Lester Park will be hostesses. The Saturday club will meet Saturday afternoon.

The following informal entertainments were given last week:
