HOLIDAY WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED

Miss Sara Hammel Becomes the Bride of Samuel Harold Marshall.

The marriage of Miss Sara Hammel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hammel, 1423 East Third street, to Samuel Harold Marshall, took place last night at 6 o'clock in the parlors of the Spalding hotel. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Maurice Lefkowitz, was witnessed by about thirty of the immediate friends and relatives of the family. A wedding banquet was served afterward in the ladies' cafe. At 8:30 a large number of the friends of the young bride and groom attended a reception in the ball room of the hotel. There was dancing with music rendered by La-Brosse's full orchestra:

At the marriage the bridesmaids were Miss Freda Goldberg and Miss Rachel Hammel. Miss Laura Hammel of Appleton, Wis., was maid of honor. The groom's best man was Sam Levy of Duluth. The ushers were Sol and Harry Hammel of Appleton, Wis. Toasts were responded to at the banquet by Leo Hammel of Milwaukee, Phil and David Hammel of Appleton and by the groom.

The parlors where the wedding ceremony was performed and the banquet room both were beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers.

The bride and groom are both well known and popular. The bride has lived in the city for a long time and Mr. Marshall located in business permanently in Duluth about a year ago.

The guests from out of the city were: Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hammel, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hammel, Harry, Sol and Miss Fanny Hammel, all of Appleton; Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Marshall of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Mose Bender of Appleton; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hammel of Milwaukee. The bride wore a white lingerie gown with a veil and carried orange blossoms, lilies of the valley and roses. The maid of honor was dressed all in white. Miss Goldberg wore white and Miss Hammel, pink and white. Mrs. Louis Hammel, the bride's mother, wore lavender. Many of the ladies among the guests wore beautiful gowns.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will reside in Duluth and will be at home to their friends after the first of the year.
