

SAYS BOYS BEAT HIM WITH A BIG STICK

Isadore Abrahamson, an employe of the Superior Iron & Metal company was seriously injured about the head yesterday during the altercation with a gang of boys. Two of the lads were taken into custody by the police and a warrant is out for two others.

It is alleged that the boys assaulted Abrahamson with a club. He ran to the city hall where he invoked the aid of the police.

Court Officer Whereatt took Abrahamson to the stationhouse and a physician was summoned. When the doctor was washing the blood off from Abrahamson's wounds he screamed at the top of his voice causing more commotion among the people about the building.

He was subsequently taken to St. Mary's hospital where his injuries were pronounced trivial.
