

WANTS VALUE OF GOODS PLUS $1,000 BONUS

Suit was started in the district court yesterday by John Mesberg against Charles Lee and D. M. Power to recover the possession of goods and chattels is valued at $4,000, and the sum of $1,000 for the alleged unlawful retention of the same by the defendants.

The parties to the action live in Hibbing. Mesberg alleges that he sold to Lee and Power household goods and other personal property to the value of $4,000, taking in payment the notes of the defendants and a chattel mortgage on the goods. Mesberg claims that the defendants have failed to pay and the suit to recover possession is the result.
