

NO HIKE FOR THEM

"Hikes may be nice exercises, and fine things to talk about, but no more of them for us." This is the refrain of three young West Duluth athletes, who returned yesterday from the Twin Cities. Their return was made on the railroad, however, not on the dusty path. They are Roy Murnion, Sam Abrahamson and Isadore Fieldman.

They started to walk to St. Paul, but at Pine City they boarded a train for the Twins.
