
BOY WILL BE TRIED ON CHARGE OF ASSAULT

The trial of Clyde Brand for an alleged murderous assault on Arthur Levinson last April will be tried in Superior court today. The assault is supposed to have occurred on North Fifth street. It is claimed that Brand in company with his brother, Ray, and several others leaped from a doorway and struck Levinson several blows with a club. The complaint alleges intent to commit murder.
