

Mrs. Fred York and Miss W. E. Chandler were hostesses to the Superior Woman's club Thursday afternoon. The subject was "The Restoration" with Mrs. Henry C. Wilson as reader. She was assisted by Mrs. Albert C. Shong and Mrs. Morgan. A number of musical selections were given by Misses Belle Harrison, Maud Wolford and Miss Snyder.

Miss Esther Moran, returns this afternoon to St. Paul, after spending the past week with relatives in the city.

Mrs. Frank Crumpton of Hotel Superior, entertained informally at luncheon Thursday afternoon. After luncheon the guests played bridge.

Mrs. N. Rowan, west Sixth street, was hostess to the Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church Wednesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid society of Pilgrim Congregational church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Fowler, Eighth avenue.

Mrs. Conrad Hanson was hostess to the Happy Home club Wednesday afternoon at her home at the South End.

Mrs. C. P. White has returned to her home in Minneapolis, after a few days' visit with friends in the city. She was accompanied home by Mrs. C. C. Barnett of Hotel Superior.

The annual ball of the Switchmen's union of North America will take place tomorrow evening at Hotel Superior. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event.

Mrs. Herbert Schell has returned to her home at Proctor, Minn., after a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kenniff, West Seventh street.

Miss Fay Pickering of the East End, will spend the Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. R. C. Pickering of Virginia, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ahlgren, John street, entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Shepherd. The table decorations were Easter lilies. Covers were laid for six.

Attorney H. V. Gard left Friday for Chicago, to attend the auto show.

Mrs. Harriet M. Nobles and Mr. William G. Weber will be united in marriage at the home of the young lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George

B. Nobles, of the Massachusetts block, at 8:30 on the evening of March 31. Only immediate friends and relatives will be in attendance. Miss Nobles is well known in this city, having resided here for a number of years and being prominent in musical circles. Mr. Weber is of Duluth and is well known and liked by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Miss Dorothy Leader of the East End is spending a few days at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Magie, 1401 East Superior street, Duluth.

B. S. Loney, John avenue, returned last week from an extended Southern trip.

Mrs. Irving Russell, Fourteenth street, entertained the Ramblers Monday afternoon. Tomorrow Mrs. R. B. Patton, John avenue, will be hostess to the club.

Miss Lillian McCormick of Hotel Superior spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick of Eveleth, Minn.

Miss Louise Schaefer of the East End, will return today from Virginia, Minn., where she has spent several days with friends.

Misses Irene, Myrna and Lois Pattison arrived this morning from the East, where they are attending school and will spend the Easter vacation with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pattison of Central Park.

Martin Pattison of Central Park, returned last week from a trip to Arizona.

Miss Lucy Barnett of Hotel Superior, will give a dancing party next Friday night at the Broadway flats.

Mrs. A. D. S. Gillette, Hughtt avenue, will be hostess to the members of the O. U. M. club next Saturday afternoon.

Miss Amy Wolford, West Fifth street, entertained her Sunday school class Wednesday afternoon at her home. Games were enjoyed and refreshments served and a delightful afternoon was spent by the little ones.

Miss Vera Salter, of the Nelson Dewey school is spending the Easter vacation at her home at Unity, Wis.

Professors Snyder and Smith of the Nelson Dewey school spent last week at the latter's claim near Gordon, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McCausland of Central park, left Friday evening for Chicago. They will also visit at Madison, Wis., before returning.

The Tuesday afternoon Bridge club will meet this week with Mrs. L. E. Waterman, Belknap street.

Miss Maud McMillan of the Nelson Dewey school spent the Easter vacation at Minneapolis.

An elaborate menu has been arranged for the annual curlers' banquet to be held at the Hotel Superior on next Friday evening, April 1. Several toasts will be responded to by various members of the Curling and Skating club. T. B. Mills will officiate as toastmaster for the occasion. The event marks the formal closing of the season in curling and skating circles and a large crowd is anticipated.

Judge A. J. Vinje leaves this evening for Shell Lake, Wis., where he will hold a term of court.

Miss Isabelle Wilson of Hotel Superior, has issued invitations for cards for Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons of this week.

Mrs. R. B. Dear of the East End accompanied by Mrs. Frank Dear of Hibbing, Minn., left Thursday evening for Washington, D. C.

Miss Esther Moran returns today to St. Paul, Minn., after spending the Easter vacation with relatives in the city.

The Agenda Five Hundred club meets tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. W. W. Savage, Twentieth street.

John and William Magie of Duluth, spent the week-end with Harry Leader of the Albany flats.

Miss Clara Banks will return tomorrow to Minneapolis, after spending the Easter vacation at her home in the East End.

Mrs. Gurdon Winsor, Hammona avenue, was hostess to the Neighborhood Bridge club Monday afternoon. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. John M. McCabe, John avenue, will entertain the club.

Misses Helen Roberts, Selma Ek and Gladys George were guests of Miss Grace Heydon, at Proctor, to attend a social function Wednesday evening.

Mrs. P. E. Bradshaw, John avenue, entertained at a luncheon at the Country club Wednesday in honor of Miss Esther Moran, of St. Paul.

The Industrial society of the Women's Relief corps met Tuesday with Mrs. M. Parker, of the Board of Trade building.

The Social Dancing club gave a dancing party last evening at Sons of Norway Hall. This was the first of a series the club will give during the spring season.

Mrs. August King and Mrs. W. A. Wedge were hostesses to the Woman's Missionary society of the Hammond Avenue Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. King, John avenue. The subject at this meeting was "Daylight in the Dark Continent" and the "Social Life of African Women." Mrs. L. K. Grimes was the leader.

The "Thinkers" of the First Methodist Episcopal church, East End, gave a social at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Roberts, Thompson avenue, Friday evening, which was well attended. Games were enjoyed. An apron contest at which the young ladies sewed the aprons and the young men threaded the needles was the cause of much amusement. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

Mrs. John Steiner, West Eighth street, is the guest of relatives at Ashland, Wis.

Ted Banks has returned to Virginia, Minn., after a brief visit at his home in the East End.

The Dreamers gave a social last evening at the home of Mrs. H. E. Heydon, West Fourth street, last evening, which was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Foltz, of the East End, have gone to Minneapolis, where they will make their home.

An Easter dance will be given by the National Fraternal league at the Broadway flats tomorrow evening, March 28.

A number of young people were the guests of Miss Nora and Elyada Larson at the home on West Sixth street, Central Park, last Monday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing various games and singing, after which a dainty luncheon was served by the hostesses. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Olson, and Misses Hilda Dahl, Erika Wiggins, Mercedes Campeau, Ameda Lundquist, Fay Smith, Mae Burnham, Minnie Olson; Messrs. Cornell Anderson, Jack Wright, Louis Wendtland (Duluth), Harold Dunsford, Bert Denham (Duluth), Tom Thompson, Frank Halbert (Duluth), Maaney Johnson (Duluth).

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. George Larson entertained the following friends at her home, 1410 Cedar avenue, Central Park: Mrs. Edward Olson, Mrs. William Olson, Misses Pederson, H. Friis, Ida, Oisen, Minnie Oisen, K. Larson, D. Grenager, M. Grenager; Messrs. T. Thompson, Oscar Oyaas, H. Huber, R. Welsh, H. Friis, M. Larsen, William Olson.

The marriage of Miss Hannah Eleanor Ronning of this city, and Mr. George Gratten of Proctor, Minn., has been announced, as having taken place in Duluth Monday, March 14. It was the intention of the young people to keep the matter a secret for a time at least, but an accident resulting in the death of the young groom's father brought the affair to light. Mrs. Gratten, nee Ronning, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Ronning of 1607 Elmira avenue, Billings Park. She is well known by a large number of the younger set of the city. Mr. Gratten was at one time a resident of this city, having for a while resided at South Superior and later at Billings Park, and has a large acquaintance here. He is at present employed as a blacksmith at Proctor at which place the young couple have taken up their residence.

The City Bowling league holds its annual banquet and election of officers at the Hotel Superior Thursday night. The plans are not yet completed.

Miss Flora Haronimus, 718 Tower avenue, and Miss Lillian Karon, 508

John avenue entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Flora Danelko of Hibbing, Minn., on Wednesday and Thursday.