

COMMENCEMENT BEGINS AT HIBBING

Sermon to Graduates of the High School Tonight — Thirteen to Complete Course.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

HIBBING, June 11.—The exercises of commencement week will begin tomorrow evening with the baccalaureate sermon, which will be delivered this year by Rev. Frank Durant, pastor of the Episcopal church of Hibbing. Mr. Durant will take for his subject, "The Splendid Ideal."

The Hibbing schools will graduate this year a class of 13, four boys and nine girls, as follows: Orpha Lent, Anna Rosenbloom, Mabel Robinson, Sarah Daneiko, Beatrice Atkinson, Irene Lanzon, Winnifred Downing, Sarah Helstein, Audrey Miller, William Allard, Herbert Rosenbloom, Ralph Adams and William Hooker.

Class night exercises will be held at the Healy theatre, Tuesday evening, the eighth grade graduation and class play will occur Thursday evening and the high school commencement Friday evening.

At the baccalaureate exercises tomorrow evening at the Lincoln high school auditorium, the following program will be rendered:

Hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King;" invocation, by Rev. C. P. Bates; responsive reading, psalm cxlv; "Praise Ye the Father," (Gounod), Alice Killorin, Rhea Metcalf, Fred Anderson, Wilbur Wring; violin solo, Miss Pauline McElroy; hymn, "Work For the Night is Coming;" sermon, "The Splendid Ideal," Rev. Frank Durant; hymn, "America;" benediction, Rev. Fr. Gamache.

Tuesday evening the class play will be given at the Healy theater. The play is a domestic drama entitled "The Valley Farm." The play will be given principally by the members of the senior class, who have been drilled for it by Charles Burnham, of the Fisher Stock company.

Thursday evening the members of the eighth grade will give their class play and have their commencement at the high school auditorium. The class play is called "The Merry Company."

On Friday evening will occur the commencement. There will be orations by two members of the senior class, Miss Beatrice Atkinson and William Hooker, and the commencement address will be delivered by Rev. William H. Black, president of the Missouri Valley college, of Marshall, Mo.