HIBBING, Oct. 24.—At a meeting of the congregation of the Hebrew brotherhood, in the Hebrew tongue Agudas achem, it was decided to erect a synagogue at once. It is expected that the synagogue will be located at the corner of Second avenue and Superior street, opposite the Washington school and adjoining the new fire hall. The company has been negotiating for a lease of these lots from the Oliver company, and expects to be able to secure them. The construction of the building will be commenced as soon as a lease can be secured.

The new synagogue will cost $5,000 and will be a fine addition to the public buildings of the city.

The congregation elected the following officers: President, Max Rogalsky; vice president, E. S. Woolfan; secretary, Max Levinson; treasurer, M. E. Osherman; trustees, Charles Hallock, L. K. Milkes, I. Rosenberg, M. Daneiko and M. Garber.
