

MUSIC

HENRY G. LAVICK.

Henry G. Lavick, violinist, who will play at the Lyceum, May 27, with the Flaaten orchestra. He will give "La Flota" by Corelli to an orchestral accompaniment. Mr. Lavick is a native of Duluth and plays first violin at the Lyceum.

The piano pupils of Mrs. D. H. Day gave the last of a series of two piano recitals at the Y. W. C. A. hall last night to an audience which filled the hall, and which manifested its approval of the pupils' playing by vigorous applause of each number. Mrs. Day's pupils always play well and give every evidence of the most careful and conscientious training, many of them playing with the technic and musical insight of artists. The series of recitals has certainly been both a musical and artistic success.

Miss Laura Frankenfield recited Kipling's beautiful poem of the east and west, and carried her audience with her so completely that she was compelled to respond with two humorous encores.