

FINED FOR KEEPING STORES OPEN ON SUNDAY

Aaron Siegel of Siegel Brothers, and Louis Lasky of Lasky Brothers, clothing merchants, each paid $5 and costs yesterday for keeping their stores open on Sunday. Warrants were served on Lasky, Siegel and Isadore Cohen yesterday morning at the instance of Secretary H. A. Swanson of the Retail Clerks' union.

The Clerks' union is keeping close tab on the clothiers keeping open on Sunday and several warrants have been issued for guilty parties during the summer.
