

LEADING JEWISH WOMAN PASSES

Mrs. Bessie Polinsky Dies Suddenly of Hemorrhage of the Brain.

Mrs. Bessie Polinsky, wife of L. Polinsky, wholesale livestock dealer, and one of the pioneer residents of Duluth, died suddenly yesterday morning at 2 o'clock at her home, 1124 East Sixth street, of hemorrhage of the brain, aged 55. In addition to her husband she is survived by seven daughters: Mrs. S. W. Rubloff, Chisholm; Mrs. J. A. Kohn, Duluth; Mrs. M. D. Nides, Hibbing; Mrs. Charles Levant, Eveleth, Mrs. Joseph Wolfe, Duluth, and the Misses Dolly and Sheba Polinsky at home.

In accordance with Hebrew custom the funeral took place yesterday afternoon, interment being in the Jewish cemetery, Rabbi Taplitz officiating. The arrangements were in charge of the O. B. A. one of the Jewish fraternal societies with which the deceased was connected.

Mrs. Polinsky with her husband settled in this city 25 years ago, coming to the United States from Russia. She took active interest in the affairs of the synagogue, but gave her special attention to the immigrants of her religion. "For them" said a member of the community last night, "her home was always open and she was ever ready to extend them a helping hand, and her name was known in almost every state of the union. Along with the O. B. A. she participated in the work of other Hebrew organizations, such as the Chavre Kadisha, the Sisters of Israel, and the Jewish Educational society.
