

SOCIETY

PREPARATIONS have been made for a lively week socially. The Richardson-Howze wedding will be the most notable event. The appearance of Miss Katherine Jewell Everts at the Endon Methodist church Monday evening is expected to call forth a good audience. Tuesday the members of the Bishop's club will be entertained at a social evening, and the Saturday club will enjoy a tea the day of its usual meeting. George Washington affairs will be among the pleasant diversions, and Duluth hostesses began early to plan for this occasion, when games, decorations and costumes will carry out the traditions of the day. The meeting of the Northeastern Teachers' association during the past few days was the largest and most enthusiastic in the history of the organization. The lectures in connection with it were of general interest. The Hartley ball at the Spaulding proved to be the most brilliant function of the year. Bridge, luncheon and teas still remain very popular, and a great many informal dances, oyster suppers and lunches were held at the Oatka branch of the Boat club.

Mrs. Charles Gallagher, Twenty-first street, was hostess at a charming "bridge" party Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated with white tulips. Six tables were played, the favors going to Mrs. A. M. Royce and Mrs. Thomas Simons.
