

LAKE BREEZES

Found Not Guilty.

Dave Robillard, bartender at the Glen hotel, who was arrested for selling liquor on Sunday, was found not guilty yesterday and discharged.

Released on Bond.

Harry Hanson, arrested on complaint of his wife who lives in West Duluth, charged with non-support, was released yesterday on furnishing a bond of $100 to properly provide for her.

No New Cases Found.

Health Commissioner Webster said last night that no fresh cases of small-pox had been discovered yesterday. "Apparently," he added, "the spread of the disease has been checked."

Second Lecture of Series.

Rabbi Lefkowitz will deliver a lecture tonight on "The Jewish View of Salvation," at Emmanuel Temple tonight. This is the second of an interesting and instructive series on "Jewish Affirmation."

Will Permit Appeal.

Richard Krause, who was arrested for selling liquor on Sunday, at the saloon, 619 East Fourth street, was yesterday fined $100 or 30 days, in the municipal court. A ten days' stay was placed upon the order to allow for an appeal.

Little Girl is Dead.

Jennie, the 11-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dulinski, died yesterday at 823 Fifth avenue east. The funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock from the Polish church, at Third street and Fourth avenue east. The interment will be in the Polish cemetery.

Asking About Bonds.

City Clerk Cheadle yesterday received from the savings bank department of the government a blank with a number of questions relative to city bonds. The city clerk believes the object is to get information on which to determine whether the bonds can be used as collateral in banks which have been designated as depositories of the funds of the postal savings banks.