

Lake Breezes

Removal of Offices.

J. J. Wangenstein, architect, has removed his offices to 615-617 Torrey building.

Detective Finds Check.

The police department has a check for $35 payable to Samuel L. Cohen, which was picked up on the street by Detective Schulte.

Two Fined for Fighting.

John Raymond and Charles Kilborn were each fined $5 and costs in the municipal court yesterday. The charge against them and to which they entered a plea of guilty was fighting in a restaurant.

Address On Gardening.

P. W. Morfoot spoke before the Market Gardeners' association of Lakewood at the Lakewood town hall yesterday on the work of the market gardener and the lines that must be followed in cultivating the soil to secure the best results. About 75 gardeners attended the meeting.

Trespasser Goes to Jail.

George Brown who was arrested while stealing a ride on a D. M. & N. ore train was given a choice between paying a fine of $3 and costs or going to jail for three days. He took the jail term for the reason that he had no means to pay the fine. The specific charge against Brown was trespass.

Funeral of Mrs. McKay.

Funeral services for Mrs. A. N. McKay, who died at her home, 927 East Fifth street, will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Argyle, Minn., by the Great Northern tonight, and the interment will be made there. Mrs. McKay was a widow, her husband having died several years ago.