

Lake Breezes

Bishop McGolrick to Lecture.

Bishop James McGolrick of the Duluth diocese will go to St. Paul next week to deliver a series of lectures to the Catholic educational convention at the seminary in that city.

Gets 30-Day Sentence.

Walter Young was yesterday sentenced to 30 days in the county jail by Judge Cutting for the theft on Saturday of a watch from the store of Jave Polinsky, 529 W. Superior street.

Priests in Retreat.

The Catholic priests of the Duluth diocese are to assemble in annual retreat at the Catholic Orphan's home this week. Clergymen from all over this section have arrived to attend this retreat. About a week will be spent by them at the home.

Buy Ore in Duluth.

R. W. Seelye and W. C. Franz of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., of the Algoma Steel company, are guests at the Spalding. The Algoma Steel company uses a certain amount of American ores, and that business brings Mr. Seelye to Duluth occasionally.

Annual Meeting Next Week.

The annual meeting of the Extension of Vermilion Steel & Iron company will be held in this city Sept. 5. The company is developing an iron property on the Vermilion range and it adjoins the Vermilion Steel & Iron property. Work of drilling is in progress.

Arrested in Box Car.

Anton Kolhi was arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Smollet after, it is alleged, he made an effort to snatch a baby from the arms of a woman at Fourth avenue west and Michigan street. Kolhi was later found in a box car and was taken to the police station.

Gasoline Boat Stolen.

Axel Oberg of Two Harbors reported to the police last night that his gasoline fish boat, the City of Two Harbors, had been stolen from the Lake avenue slip. According to Oberg the boat had been tied up there since last Tuesday and was last seen by him four days ago.

Labor Union Official Coming.

Frank Duffy, international secretary of the carpenters' union, will be in Duluth on Labor day, Monday, Sept. 4. Efforts are being made by the local organization to have him take part in the program. He will address the local carpenters before the parade starts in the morning.

Magazine Editor Here.

Joe M. Chapple of Boston, owner of the National Magazine, was a guest at the Spalding yesterday, and while in this city met many of his head of the lake friends. He was formerly editor of the Ashland Press, and established his fame in the magazine business some years ago.

Will Ask for New Trial.

Theodore Hollister, attorney for the Adriatic Mining company, has served notice in the district court that he will make a motion Saturday asking for a new trial in the case of Emil Aho vs. the Adriatic Mining company, which was recently tried, with the jury awarding damages to the plaintiff.

Boys Go Camping.

E. N. D. McLeod, secretary of the boy's department of the Y. M. C. A., left yesterday with 15 boys for Big Island, near West Duluth, where they will spend the next three days "under canvas." This trip is taken to give a number of boys who did not have an opportunity to attend the big encampment a chance to get a taste of outdoor summer life.

Committee to Meet Today.

The social service committee of the Men and Religion Forward movement will meet today at the Y. M. C. A. to make preliminary plans for the series of social meetings to be held in connection with this movement. The committee will try to learn what lines of social work need assistance and expect to communicate with the brotherhoods of the various churches to have them join in the campaign.

Boy Bitten by Dog.

Gish Goldfarb, a 3½-year-old boy, was bitten in the cheek by a dog yesterday afternoon while sitting on the porch at his home, 618 Second avenue east. The youngster was carried immediately to police headquarters by a brother, where an examination by Dr. I. J. Murphy, police surgeon, showed that the wound was not serious. Dr. Murphy will locate the animal and determine whether it is afflicted with rabies.

City Sealer in Accident.

George E. Duren, city sealer of weights of measures, while driving his new runabout toward his home on Garfield avenue yesterday morning, ran into a hole caused by defective paving and narrowly escaped a serious accident. The auto swerved into the railroad yards where it struck a post, breaking a spring, a lamp and otherwise twisting up the runabout. Aside from a few bruises Mr. Duren was not injured and was at work again in a few hours.