

HENRY COHEN WAS LUCKY.

BRAINERD Minn., Sept. 12.—

Henry I. Cohen, real estate and insurance man, is proud of a catch of black bass which he made in Hubbard lake. Twelve hours after they were caught they were weighed at the Mansford hotel by the chef and the largest one scaled $5\frac{1}{2}$ pounds. Four bass weighed just 16 pounds.

