

KEEWATIN APPOINTMENTS ARE DELAYED A WEEK

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

KEEWATIN, April 5.—At the first meeting of the new council this week the only change was the retiring of Trustee Paddy McGuire to private life, his office being filled by E. L. Cochran. The matter of appointments was taken up and two applications for chief of police were received, Chas. Vachnais and John Webb, each of which received two votes. Trustee Jaffe being absent and as neither of the members present would switch, the appointment was laid over till the next meeting as was also the appointment of night police and street commissioner. J. C. Lewis was reappointed village attorney; Isadore Karon fire chief. The Nashwauk Herald was designated as the official paper.

Dr. C. F. Carothers was reappointed health officer with Frank Wenzel assistant for the St. Paul location, and Percy Carmichel for the Mississippi location.

P. A. McEachin was appointed justice of the peace to succeed himself. E. J. Lynch having declined to qualify.

The clerk's salary was fixed at the same rate as before, $100 per month; that of the treasurer was reduced from $75 to $60.
