

Honor Students at Industrial High

MYRTLE AMUNDSON.

CLIFFORD STOWELL.

ANNA NEUBAUER.

MABEL ISAACSON.

Four of the 19 students who will graduate from the Duluth Industrial High school this year are honor students. Their work during the four years has been of an exceptional quality, and they will take the leading part in the graduation exercises next month. The honor students in rank of standing are: Clifford Stowell, Myrtle Amundson, Mabel Isaacson and Anna Neubauer.

The other 15 graduates in the senior class this year are. Edna Brigham, Fren Brooks, Kathryn Connolly, Esther Donald, Julia McNulty, Edith Pollock, Theresa Quinn, Florence Salter, Mildred Simons, Laura Smith, Edna Spindler, Isadore Abramson, Francis Ehr, John Simpson and Roy Williams.

A feature of the commencement exercises will be the annual class play, "All a Mistake," which will be given on June 12. Miss Winnifred Smith, English instructor, has charge of the production. The cast is as follows:

Capt. Obadiah Skinner, Roy Williams; Lieut. George Richmond, Clifford Stowell; Richard Hamilton, Earl Brooks; Ferdinand Lighthouse, Isadore Abramson; Nellie Richmond, Mildred Simons; Nellie Huntington, Edith Pollock; Cornelia Skinner, Florence Salter; Nellie McIntyre, a servant, Edna Spindler.
