

RANGE GIRL WEDS MILL CITY MAN

Sapero-Brill Nuptials at Chisholm Marked by Unusually Beautiful Setting.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

CHISHOLM, July 1.—The marriage of Miss Marlesha Sapero to Josiah E. Brill of Minneapolis, which took place last evening at 5:30, was the prettiest event of the local season. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Sapero, one of the oldest families of Chisholm and a favorite in her set.

The home of the bride was beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers and plants. The color scheme was green and white and the inside decorations were of peonies, roses, sweet peas, asparagus, smilax and fern palms. A beautiful canopy consisting of an immense Japanese parasol, covered with ferns, white roses and white carnations was suspended from the ceiling together with French baskets filled with white peonies and ferns forming the bower under which the ceremony took place. The party marched from the stairway through a bower of flowers and ferns, the newel post being banked with ground pine, studded with white flowers.

A violin accompanied by the piano, played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the march was taken up by the bridal party. The party was preceded by the flower girl, Hazel Sapero, the bride's sister, who strewed the pathway with white roses. Miss Ester Sapero, another sister, was maid of honor and Mrs. Mose Sapero, the matron of honor. Abe Sapero and Mose Sapero were the best men. The bridesmaids being Miss Ester Brill and Miss Pauline Rabinovitz. The men of the bridal party were Louis Kanter, Mose Sapero and Harry Rabinovitz. Little Harlan Sapero, the bride's brother, dressed all in white carried the ring in the heart of a rose. The bride was given away by her father and after the pronouncement of the vows by Rabbi Maurice Lefkovits of Duluth, the party proceeded to the dining room where the wedding supper was served.

The dining room was decorated in white and green and on each table were green and white candelabras with white and green shades. In the center of each stood a huge glass basket of white roses. Small individual glass baskets filled with white sweet peas were placed along the edge of the tables, joining with a large center basket by strings of asparagus and smilax.

The gowns were exquisite, the bride being dressed in white shimmering charmeuse, covered with rose point lace made in pannier lines which had the square cut court train and the bridal veil falling softly over the gown. She carried an arm shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bride and groom left immediately for Chicago where they will visit friends for a week or ten days and will return to Lake Minnetonka until July 21. They will be at home at Linden Hills, Minneapolis, after Sept. 1. The wedding was strictly private, only relatives of the couple being present.
