

The Social Side of Life

COMING WEEK IN SOCIETY

MONDAY—

Mrs. J. L. Washburn entertains Saturday club on lawn at her home in Hunters park.

Picnic at Oatka beach given by the Duluth Women's Relief corps.

TUESDAY—

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cutler entertain at a dancing party at the Northland Country club in honor of Miss Carolyn Marshall.

WEDNESDAY—

Mid-week aquatic sports program at the Oatka branch of the Duluth Boat club.

The Kennedy-Hill wedding, and the Staples-Holgate wedding.

THURSDAY—

Quarterly meeting of the Sibley House association of the Minnesota D. A. R. at Mendota, Minn., at 10:30 o'clock. A basket luncheon will be served.

Bridge tea and dinner dance at the Northland Country club.

Grand Army excursion on steamer Columbia to Fond du Lac.

Dancing parties at the Oatka branch.

FRIDAY—

Assembly dance at the Spalding hotel.

SATURDAY—

Ladies Day to be celebrated at the Duluth Boat club Oatka branch with sailing, motor boat and canoe races.

Finals in the tennis tourney. Weekly dance at Oatka.

The past week has been an active one in social circles. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. E. W. Bohannon, 2323 East Fifth street, gave a reception at her home which proved to be a delightful affair. The rooms were effectively decorated with pink poppies. The guests were received on the lawn by Mrs. Bohannon, assisted by Mrs. Claude Washburn.

The King's Daughters' country fair was the leading event of the week in point of magnitude, and this was closely followed by the reception for Miss Margaret Illington at the Spalding hotel Friday afternoon, and the luncheon given by the doctors' wives at the Boat club in honor of the women attending the Minnesota Medical association convention.

The reception at the Spalding was a charming function and was attended by 250 members of the Duluth-Superior Drama league and their friends. Mrs. S. R. Holden, chairman of the league, planned out the details for the reception, and the affair proved to be a most satisfactory one from a social viewpoint.

Dr. Mabel Ulrich of Minneapolis addressed the members of the local college women's club at Mrs. Harding's home Thursday, and her intimate talk to them was well received.

A training class for civic workers was formed by a committee of the Woman's council on Friday morning at the library. Seventeen members were enrolled and there are others who desire to join the class. Mrs. J. T. Watson was elected chairman and Mrs. Arthur Barnes and Mrs. E. A. Silberstein vice chairmen.

This class is the outgrowth of the need felt in the council for trained workers on its committees. It is designed to make this a real study class, and every member will be expected to be prepared on each lesson. A program committee, consisting of Miss Meeker, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Silberstein and Mrs. Keer, was appointed. A committee was also named to draw up simple rules for the conduct of the class.

These committees will report at the next meeting, which will be held at the library on Friday, Aug. 30, at 10:30 o'clock. Others desiring to join the class will be welcome.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Magle of Pleasant Hill farm entertained at dinner Wednesday in honor of Dr. Wither- spoon of Tennessee, president-elect of the American Medical association, and Dr. Haldor Sneve of St. Paul, president of the Minnesota Medical association. Covers were laid for 14.

Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Abbot and daughter Elizabeth were guests at Pleasant Hill farm last week.

A special meeting of the Sibley House association of the Minnesota D. A. R. will be held Thursday at Mendota, Minn. The Greysolon Du Lhut chapter of the D. A. R. has received from the president of the Montreal Antiquarian society a stone from the house of Daniel Greysolon Sieur du Lhut.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown jr. have issued invitations for the wedding of their sister, Miss Maude Luella Clymer, to George W. Owen. The wedding will take place Thursday, Aug. 28.

Mrs. John Helmer will entertain at a dancing party at the Oatka branch of the Boat club Thursday evening.

Miss Alice Lee and Miss Emily Smith of Tobin's Harbor, Isle Royale, entertained at a house party last week at Isle of View. Those in the party were Miss Margaret Smith of Omaha, Neb., Miss Hazel Sharrard of Kansas City, Mo., Miss Malva Cameron of Minneapolis, Minn., Sidney Walker of Topeka, Kan., Joe Moore and Steve Locker of Minneapolis, James Lawrence of Milwaukee and Fred Kilmar of Calumet, Mich. The young people were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Clark Powell of Omaha.

Mrs. R. W. Willard was given a surprise party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Farrel, 1832 East Third street, on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. The rooms were decorated with roses, poppies and sweet peas. Those present were: Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Mount, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Culbertson, Mrs. Ellison, Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. McDermott, Mrs. Shuman, Mrs. Bellamy, Mrs. Whiteside, Mrs. Wentworth, Mrs. Starkey, Miss Starkey and Miss Brophy of Cincinnati.

Miss Pearl Petz entertained a party of young ladies at Camp Lazy Lodge, Thursday evening. The lawn was prettily decorated with lanterns. The party consisted of Miss Dora Schmittiel, Miss Katharine Petz, Miss Isabel McLean, Miss Ella Hill, Miss Maryarr Jensen, Miss Flora McLeon, Miss Myrtle Osborn, Miss Nan Polaski, Miss Ida Baker, Miss Bertha Anderson and Miss Hilda Martinson.

A farewell handkerchief shower was given for Miss Lucy Scholtes, 1728½ West First street, Wednesday evening. The following were present: Miss Petra Hanson, Miss Gwendolyn Cole, Miss Gladys Larsen, Miss Muriel Nelson, Miss Ruth Lent, Miss Pearl Brightfelt, Miss Irene Highland, and Miss Borghild Hansen.

Miss Sarah Salnovitz, 616 East Sixth street, entertained Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. William H. Glass of Hancock, Mich., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Azine of 314 East First street.

Osborne, Miss Chollet McClellan, Miss Jeffries and Miss E. Eklom.

Miss Katherine Helam of 2024 West Second street entertained Wednesday evening at a bundle shower in honor of Miss Lucille Gorby, who will become the bride of O. C. Helam early in September. Decorations were in pink and white. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Richard, Miss M. Craig, Miss Rooney, Miss D. Williams, Miss G. Williams, Miss Butchart, Miss Seekins, Miss D. Manson, Miss A. Helam, and Miss G. Helam.

Miss Anna Lueck gave a farewell party Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. A. Mathews and Mrs. J. H. Davey. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and music. The guests were: Mrs. A. Mathews, Mrs. J. H. Davey, Mrs. C. V. Hanson, Miss Anna Lueck, Miss Freda Lueck, Miss Edna Lautz, Miss Laura Le Pine, Miss Mamie Lueck, Miss Brettta Soderlin, Miss Lizzie Wendlandt, Baby Wendal.

Miss Ester Ott of 708 East Fifth street entertained at a cobweb party in honor of her cousin, Miss Hattie Martins of Bay City, Mich., Wednesday evening. The guests were: Miss Olga Zuck, Miss Anna Reinke, Miss Gertrude Nisius, Miss Clara Reinke, Miss Lenr Nisius, Miss Nena Reynolds, Frank Amon of St. Paul, William Nisius jr., Ralph McIntyre, George Jacobs, George C. Kettner of St. Paul, Alfred C. Ott.

Miss Ruth Willcuts of 2128 East Fourth street entertained at a luncheon Friday at 1 o'clock in honor of Miss Lou Staples and Miss Boden of Los Angeles, Cal. The table decorations were in sweet peas. There were ten guests.

Miss Viola Helm entertained at luncheon Wednesday at her summer home at Pike lake. The following guests were present: Mrs. Frank Glover, Miss Willard, Miss Gorby, Miss Clark, Miss Willard, Miss Guire, Miss Wellington.

The Bethel Baptist Sunday school gave its annual picnic, at Chester park Thursday. Oscar Swenson, superintendent of the school, had charge of the outing.

Miss Ella Johnson was given a surprise party at her home Thursday evening. The evening was spent in music and games. Those present were: Miss Betsy Duclett, Miss Anna Solem, Miss Hattie Hjelm, Miss Barbara Helm, Jens Solem, Joseph Solem, Sigurd Duclett, John Peterson, Sam Simonson, S. Haug and William Lundberg.

Miss Myrtle Fisher, 109 East Third street, was given a surprise party at her home Wednesday evening. The guests were: Mrs. P. Miely, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. George Dale, Mrs. O'Keefe, Miss Myrtle Fischer, Miss Clara McClellan, Miss Ruth Cassel, Miss Drew Kelleher, Miss Ruby Osborn, Miss Anna Bolme, Miss Verne Michalek, Miss Loretta Green, Miss Ella Connelly, Miss Winnie Kessel, Miss Clara Smith, Miss Ruth Jacobson, Miss Hazel Fischer, Miss Myrtle