

THEATER CHANGES HANDS.

R. E. Gumm formerly connected with the United Theater company of Chicago, has purchased the Majestic theater, 24 East Superior street. Mr. Gumm will change the name of the theater to The Diamond and run it as a high class motion picture theater, charging five cents admission; Saturday, Sundays and Holidays, 10 cents.

The Diamond will be closed for remodeling until Saturday, Aug. 31.