Cleon T. Knapp of Chisholm, republican candidate for the legislature in class 1, spent the day in the city looking after his fences. Mr. Knapp will have to go some if he defeats Fred Bessette at the primaries next Tuesday. Mr. Knapp did not make a very good record in the last session of the legislature and there are a great many people in the district who are working towards his defeat for the re-nomination.

Cruisers, hunters and others who travel through the timber section in St. Louis county say that this year there is less danger from forest fires than in years. There has been greater rainfall this year than usual on the range and in the country north and the woods are not in the dry condition usual at this season of the year.

The Lyric had a crowded house at the presentation of "Johnnie on the Spot" last night and the performance was one of the best yet seen at that popular play house. Anna Revere made a big hit with the audience as did also the Trathern Sisters. There is also a bevy of pretty girls to enliven the comedy and the play is one of fun and comedy all the way through.

F. C. Whiting, the insurance man, visited a number of the range towns during the week.

ANNA REVERE WITH "JOHNNIE ON THE SPOT."

Dr. J. R. Reynolds and daughter were Sunday visitors in Eveleth.

A doctor will sit down and write a prescription; time, five minutes; paper, one-eighth of a cent, and the patient pays $1, $2 or $5 as the case may be. A lawyer writes ten or fifteen lines and gets from $5 to $15 from his client. An editor writes a column "puff" for a man, pays fifty cents to a dollar for putting it in type, prints it on $7 worth of paper, sends it to a thousand or more subscribers, and the man falls dead from heart failure when he gets a bill for $1.25 for the service. We sometimes believe there is an easier and more appreciated manner of making a living than running a newspaper; working on the railroad all the livelong day, for instance.

Glenn A. Ricks attended to matters of business at Duluth on Monday.

C. L. Liscomb of the New London Milling company, was in Duluth the latter part of the week on business.

VOTE FOR—

CHARLES CALLIGAN X

RANGE CANDIDATE FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS

In consideration of the fact that M. C. Palmer was a former Virginian it is likely many Virginia voters will feel that he is entitled to their vote as first choice. If so, a vote for Charles Calligan for second choice will be duly appreciated.
