

MRS. ZIEN WANTS REALTY SOLD TO REALIZE LEGACY

Mrs. Mathilda Zien, widow of Jacob D. Zien, formerly a well known wholesale liquor dealer, and devisee under his will, has appealed to the supreme court to have the proceedings in which certain real estate is involved, remanded to the probate court with directions to enter an order licensing the sale of so much of the real estate of the decedent as may be necessary to pay the costs of administration, the debts against the estate and the $5,000 legacy bequeathed to her.
