

TWO FAMILIES ARE DRIVEN OUT BY FIRE

The families of S. Goldstein and Morris Levin escaped from their homes into the street at 12 o'clock noon yesterday when fire was discovered in the second floor of the residence they occupy jointly, at 817 Fourth avenue west.

The blaze originated from an overheated range and spread with such rapidity that little of the furniture was saved.

The first floor was occupied by S. Goldstein, and the second by Morris Levin. The loss is estimated at $750.
