

FACE BADLY BURNED.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

BOVEY, Minn., Jan. 20.—Ed Chucker, a local stock buyer, was badly burned about the face by the explosion of a stove. The stove is the kind known as an airtight heater and Mr. Chucker was firing up to keep the frost from removing the nail heads from his home on Second avenue.