

"Merode" (Hand Finished) Underwear

WILL BE ON SALE DURING THE WEEK BEGINNING

Monday, October 14th

We shall display in our show window and department the Superb Underwear.

On account of the Many New and Desirable Lines which we have included in our unusually well Assorted Stock, we have decided that the best way to introduce these lines to our customers in a practical manner, is to devote the entire week to proper Demonstration, Showing and Selling of

"Merode" (Hand Finished) Underwear

Critical Women who are familiar with the many excellencies of "Merode" Hand Finished Underwear, cannot be induced to consider any other.

Our salespeople will be pleased to show and give you full information about this Beautiful Hand-finished Underwear, and we cordially invite all to take advantage of the Week's Selling while the stock is complete.

Duluth Lots

Four magnificent building lots, size 50x250 feet each, in Duluth's very best residence district. Restricted location—Magnificent Lake and Valley view—Beautiful lots. Just one block from Car line and from $10,000 and $20,000 homes. Lots only $1500 each. Easy terms. I expect to be at Fay Hotel, Virginia, Sunday forenoon. Call on me there or write me at Duluth.

H. H. NESBITT
3531 East 1st Street
DULUTH

Local News.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will hold a baked food sale at the store of W. B. Pratt & Co. on Saturday, October 12th.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will hold a social session at the home of Mrs. Frank Carlson, 311 Lake Boulevard, on Wednesday afternoon next.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church held a regular weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. Barker, of Hickory street, Wednesday afternoon.

R. H. Moore, formerly of Cook, has removed to this city with his family. He formerly conducted the Bublitz hotel at Cook, and is well known in the country to the north of Virginia.

E. W. Burbeck, a former range resident who now resides in Duluth, left Tuesday morning for Hibbing and Chisholm after a short visit in this city with friends and relatives.

Attorney M. H. McMahon returned Thursday morning from a business visit at Hibbing and Chisholm.

Prof. H. V. Olson, of the Lyric Theater orchestra, renewed old acquaintances at Hibbing Tuesday afternoon.

LOST—A brooch, on Central avenue between Cedar street and Larch street. Finder leave at Enterprise office for reward. It

E. G. Bush, of the Duluth Diamond Drilling Co., was up from Duluth on Wednesday.

David Foley, chief of the Oliver Iron Mining Company police force, attended to business matters at Hibbing the forepart of the week.

Mrs. D. W. Stebbins returned Saturday from an extended visit at Potosky, Mich., where she had been called by news of the illness and subsequent death of a brother-in-law, Charles R. Pratt. She was accompanied upon her return by Mrs. Pratt, who will spend the winter here.

Mrs. I. Milavetz, of Maple street, returned yesterday afternoon from a visit with acquaintances at Gilbert. She was accompanied on her return by Mrs. A. Siegel of Gilbert.

Mayor M. A. Murphy returned Wednesday evening from a short business stay in the Zenith City.

Supt. of Schools and Mrs. Burton O. Greening, Mayor Saari and party, and Ralph Mantel and party, all of Eveleth, motored to Virginia Monday evening. This was the first time the Eveleth mayor drove his new Buick car to this city.

Contractor Andrew Nelson has a large force of men at work repairing the A. C. Osborn residence on Maple street, between Wyoming and Cleveland avenues. The house was recently moved on to a new foundation. The front of the residence is now being torn down, and a new porch and other exterior improvements will be provided.

Something nice about trading at Kratze's, 408 Chestnut St. Everything marked in plain figures, strictly one price to all. Every garment in store is durable, and if Kratze tells you anything you can depend on it, always getting your money's worth. Handles everything men or boys wear.

E. J. O'Rourke, Duluth, attended to business matters in the city the fore part of the week.

T. B. Voog, of the local schools, returned Tuesday evening from a week's vacation at his old home at Eagle Grove, Iowa.

Mrs. L. Schroeder, of International Falls, who visited here with acquaintances Wednesday left yesterday for a short stay at Biwabik.

Captain L. C. David and H. W. Overpeck were among the Oliver Mining company employees who attended the talk given in the Zenith City last evening by "Bull Moose" Roosevelt.

The Hollowell Concert Company of nine musicians, which has been rehearsing here the past week under the direction of Manager W. L. Hollowell, will open its engagement over the Western Vaudeville Association circuit Sunday evening with a four days engagement at the Lyric Theater. Cloquet has also been added to the circuit.

Nathaniel Gardner, of Gardner-McDonald company, returned Monday morning from Duluth, where he spent the week end with acquaintances.

W. T. Irwin and family will shortly occupy the former Hannaford residence on North Wyoming, which is now being repaired.

W. E. Hannaford, of the Enterprise, attended to business matters in Duluth Tuesday.

Donald Young, of the firm of Alexander Reid & Co., arrived in the city Sunday and entered upon his new duties with that firm the first of the week. Mr. Young and family will occupy a new home being erected by Harry King at 505 Hickory street, which will be completed very shortly.

Mrs. Glenn A. Ricks entertained the "Blue Bells Club" at her home Tuesday evening, a most enjoyable evening being spent by some thirty members in attendance.

Mrs. Laviolette, of the Troy Laundry, is considering plans for a two story brick building to replace the present laundry, at the foot of Chestnut street. In the event a new structure will be built this fall, the building now used for the laundry will be torn down. Mrs. Laviolette has had plans drawn for the proposed laundry and expects to make a decision soon as to the erection of a building this fall.

Mrs. Hough and daughter, of Wyoming avenue, left Wednesday noon for a ten days' trip to Maple Grove, Wis., where they will attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Saperio and the latter's father, S. Ostrov, of Superior, Wis., who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kantor, Sunday, left for Chisholm Monday morning.

E. J. Kroidler and W. A. Allen, Duluth piano men, transacted business matters here the past week.

Classes in Jewish writing and reading have been resumed at the Bnai Abraham Temple, with Rabbi S. Abramson of Mountain Iron in charge. About twenty students are attending the classes, which will be continued throughout the winter and spring.

Sam Masinter, for the past year night clerk at the Central Hotel, leaves this week for Elgin, N. D., where he has accepted a more important and lucrative position with a mercantile establishment.

William P. Rutherford, of Gilbert, called on Virginia acquaintances Wednesday.

Judge James P. Carey, of the municipal court, left Wednesday afternoon for a visit at Aurora and other eastern Mesaba range points.

Otto Lund, tailor, expects to remove next week to his new quarters in the Savolainen building, opposite the Ormonde Hotel. The other store-room will be occupied by the Savolainen Bros., jewelers, with Alex Savolainen in charge. P. Savolainen will still continue to occupy his quarters in the Enterprise Block.

Miss Bernice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Metcalfe, celebrated her 16th birthday Monday evening by entertaining sixteen of her friends at a party at her home. Many games were played and in the game of "pit" Claire Lippman, won first prize, and Mildred Hendy second prize.

Francis McCabe of Proctor is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. McCabe of Cook street.

Frank Grzgorzski, one of the Enterprise subscribers at Green, has disposed of his property there and removed to this city, making his residence on Spruce street.

R. Lee, who is in charge of the range shops of the A. H. Kreiger Co., returned Monday morning from the Zenith City where he spent the week-end with friends and relatives.

C. C. Butler, the local paving contractor, left Tuesday noon for a business visit in the Zenith City.

In Virginia is pleasing news to his wide circle of friends here.

John F. Russell, for some time past telegraph operator at the local Great Northern depot, has accepted a similar position at Bena, Minn., and entered upon his new duties the fore part of the week. John McGraw, formerly of Pine City, has accepted a position as baggageman at the depot here.

Miss Ethel Wilk, of Beech street, left yesterday afternoon for a visit with Duluth friends and relatives.

Rev. J. I. Fadum, of the United Norwegian Lutheran church, left Wednesday evening for Bear River and other points to the north of Virginia.

Contractor M. Okerstrom and men are making rapid progress on the new Finnish Unitarian church being erected at the corner of Wyoming avenue and Locust street. The building will cost $2,000 when completed, and it is expected the structure will be ready for occupancy by the middle of December. Rev. Risto Lappala will be in charge of the new church.

Suits and overcoats made to order. Kratze's reputation for giving satisfaction in fit and workmanship justifies you in calling at 408 Chestnut St. See cloth samples. Price always cheapest in Virginia, considering quality.

Andrew Grande, O. P. Johnson and Nels Anderson were among Virginians transacting business in Duluth Tuesday.

I. E. Idzal arrived in the city on Monday to accept a position in the store of B. Levin. Mr. Idzal has for some time past been connected with the store of Browning, King & Co., St. Paul, and is accredited as being a first-class salesman, one who understands goods and the up-keep of stock. Mr. Levin has been alone in his store for several weeks past, and while he has had the opportunity of getting needed help deferred the action until he could get a man whose ability was an unquestioned asset.

Staryl Ferris, of International Falls, came down Tuesday to look after business affairs and spend a day with former friends in the city.

Mrs. Ed Edholm, who resides in the Mud Lake district, was tendered a pleasant surprise by a large number of friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Erickson, on Locust street, Tuesday afternoon. Luncheon was served and Mrs. Edholm was presented with a handsome rocker as a token of esteem by those in attendance.

James Smith, of McLeod-Smith Co., Duluth, returned to his home Wednesday noon, after viewing the work done by his men on the new public library and North Side school in this city.

George Beresford, manager of the Finch Buffet at Eveleth, and William Murray and Ben Kaner, also of Eveleth, were Virginia business callers Wednesday morning.

Contractor Peter Grande is employing a large crew on the new two-story residence being erected at 308 Locust street for Alderman Dan Coffey. It is expected Mr. Coffey's new home will be ready for occupancy next month.

Architect John De Warde, of the McLeod-Smith Co., Duluth, who are erecting the new North Side school and public library here, returned to Virginia Tuesday evening following a business trip to Hibbing and Chisholm.

Miss Ryan left Wednesday afternoon for a visit with acquaintances at Hibbing and Chisholm.

Mrs. Ethel Jones, who produced "Dad's Gal" at the Lyric Theatre last summer, and who is now advance agent for the Metropolitan Concert company, passed through Virginia on her way to Buhl Tuesday afternoon.

Attorney Walter H. Radermacher, M. Kraker, and Mrs. H. Dukelow, all of Gilbert, attended to business matters in Virginia Tuesday afternoon.

P. H. Foote, of St. Paul, who supervised the work of beautifying the court house and Roosevelt and Technical school grounds, arrived in the city Monday evening and will spend a few days here on business.

Mrs. Frank Haller and children, formerly of St. Paul, arrived in this city Sunday evening to make their home here with Mr. Haller, proprietor of the New Exclusive Shoe Store on Central avenue.

Frank Hughes left Tuesday morning on a business trip to Hibbing, Chisholm and other western Mesaba range points. Alderman R. J. McGhee also made the trip to Hibbing, Tuesday.

Dr. A. Prudden returned Monday evening from a short stay in the Zenith City. He accompanied his brother, who played a star game at tackle for Duluth against the Virginia High school eleven Saturday afternoon.

NORTON HARDWARE COMPANY

Headquarters For Sporting Goods of Every Description

WE HAVE IN STOCK A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT OF

New Savage 22 Calibre Repeating Rifles
New Stevens 20 Gauge Pump Guns
New Remington Pump Rifles
New Winchester 12 Gauge Pump Guns

And everything the sportsman may need for his outing trip, whether he goes for Water Fowl or Big Game

"DUKBAK"

Hunting Coats and Suits—absolutely water proof. In stock or made to order for both men and ladies.

NORTON HARDWARE COMPANY
Virginia, Minn.

E. J. Steinerwald, Judge R. J. Montague, W. H. Brown, Peter Western, Joseph Roman, N. B. McDonald, L. Castner, H. O. Johnson, A. Savolainen and H. J. Reinertsen, were among the Virginians who left on the noon train yesterday to hear Theodore Roosevelt deliver his Duluth address. Many of the party who made the trip are confident the Colonel will carry the range for the "Bull Moose" party.

W. J. Archer spends much of the week in Duluth, where he is a member of the commission making a recount of the votes for commissioner in the seventh district. Other members of the recount commission are D. T. Collins of Hibbing and Attorney Austin of Chisholm.

Rev. James S. McGaw, of Pittsburgh, Pa., general secretary of the National Reform Association, gave an interesting lecture at the First Presbyterian church, Sunday. He told of the agencies working for and against the welfare of the people and held the attention of his large audience throughout the discourse. He left Monday for Eveleth, and from that city will travel to Duluth where he will do considerable work in the interest of his association.

Joseph Karl, the local meat man, went to Kelsey Tuesday, where he purchased a car of cattle for shipment to Virginia. Mr. Karl says there is much live stock to be had in the immediate vicinity of the range, and considers the new slaughter house and abattoir here will shortly be killing enough to practically supply the local trade, at least.

Luke F. Burns, candidate on the democratic ticket for representative of the 49th district, has returned from Biwabik and other eastern Mesaba range points where he has been working in the interests of his candidacy. He and several other local bournons attended the forming of a Hibbing Wilson-Marshall club last evening.

S. Bergeson left Tuesday noon for a short visit in Chisholm. He was accompanied by A. Ternunson who will be employed at Chisholm this fall.

Charles Jesmore, of Eveleth, a leading range democrat, drove to Virginia Monday afternoon. He is well pleased with the outlook for the democratic candidates and expects many bournons will hold office in 1913.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt, of Fosterville, Wis., who have been visiting relatives in this city, left the forepart of the week for Coleraine, Minn., where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tresler.

Till Plaster Treatment

Come to Superior, Wis. We are located in the Hammond block, 819 Tower avenue, rooms 201, 202, 203, 204. Let us prove to you that we have the most wonderful plaster remedy that was ever put on the market. Penetrating quickly, relieving old chronic, deep seated ailments, and all aches and pains due to any spinal or muscular derangements.

Till plaster treatment is the treatment for all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Heart, Lungs, Nerves and Rheumatism, Diabetes, Fits, Asthma, Catarrh, Deafness, Eczema, Dropsy, Bedwetting Children, Appendicitis, Gall Stones, Goitre, Piles, Leg Ulcers and all serious diseases of Men, Women and Children, never thoroughly understood by the family physician.

MANY GRATEFUL PATIENTS from nearly every country, restored to health and happiness are praising the Till Plaster treatment. Their phenomenal record of cures has startled the people from ocean to ocean and their new system of treatment will soon revolutionize the practice of medicine in America. No matter who has failed to cure you, the time has come when it is worth your while to come hundreds of miles to secure this one sure way of curing disease rather than subject yourself to the dangerous experience of inexperienced physicians.

Game Warden Woods, whom rumor claimed as dead, impressed residents of Gowen, a small station on the Great Northern between Virginia and Hibbing that he was very much alive by arresting Harry Nitz, a new agent, Irvin Andrews and William Mayala, for violating the game laws. The trio were brought to Virginia and fined $10 and costs, respectively, by Judge Carey.

WANTED—Four to eight furnished flat or house, for house-keeping. Wanted soon. Phone or address P. O. Box 582.

Hawkinson Bros. & Hubbard, undertakers and embalmers. Residence, 509 Ash Street. Phone No. 587. 11-10tf.

House and two lots on North Side for sale or rent. Apply to Jas. P. Carey, City Hall. 4-23tf.

Buy or build a home on monthly payments. See Knutti & Vanhala, 335 Chestnut street. Telephone 158. 2-2tf.

"LET GEORGE DO IT"

Let Us Sell You the Right Load in the Red Winchester Leader Shell
NOW READY FOR SALE

This Load is Stiff Enough to Stop the Swiftest Duck in America— Here it is—

3 1-2 Drams Dupont
1 1-2 oz. No. 6 Tat. Chilled Shot
2 3-4 in. 12 ga. Winchester Leader Shell
Special Wadding

JUST ASK FOR DAVE'S DUCK LOAD

VIRGINIA HARDWARE COMPANY
319 CHESTNUT ST. H. J. GEORGE, Proprietor TELEPHONE 26

WE SELL EVERYTHING IN HARDWARE

ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE LADIES OF VIRGINIA AND VICINITY:— I wish to announce that my new Millinery Parlors, corner of Maple St. and Cleveland Ave., are now open for your inspection.

My stock is replete with all the latest styles and with a full line of seasonable goods.

My prices will always be found right and I ask your inspection and patronage on the merits of my stock and work.

MISS MAY NAGLE

Corner Maple St. and Cleveland Ave.