

ALEX. REID & CO.

THE long drawn out tedious work of remodelling and enlarging our store is fast nearing completion. By the time this goes to press the fixture man will be busy placing the fixtures and by the time another week is over we ought to be in respectable shape to receive and serve our trade in comfort.

ALEX. REID & CO.

SATURDAY means a busy day and we are prepared to offer some rare bargains in our up-to-date line of Coats Suits and Dresses

COATS in all the latest modes will be on sale at $15 to $35 | SUITS in all the latest modes will be on sale at $23.50

These Are Especially Prices for Saturday Business

MUNSING UNDERWEAR

Our Fall line of Munsing Underwear is now complete, we are showing a large selection of weights and styles including the new "Dutch" necks, for Ladies, Misses and Children.

Ladies' Garments 50c to $3.50
Children's Garments 50c to $1.50

BARGAIN BASEMENT SPECIALS

LADIES' UNION SUITS
Ladies' fine Egyptian yarn Union Suits. Heavy fleece. All sizes. Regular 65c values, bargain price

49cts.

COTTON BLANKETS
Gray cotton Blankets. A good quality. Special bargain basement price

49cts.

Chas. C. Butler

General Contractor.

SEWERS AND CEMENT WORK

STREET WORK

'PHONE 147

Matheson Bldg. Virginia, Minn.

STAMPED WOOD TO BURN

Glove Boxes, Handkerchief Boxes, Long Dresser Boxes, Square, Oval and Round Panels, Frames, Hand Mirrors and many other articles. Also outfits for burning at
A. M. BRIST'S
PICTURE AND FRAMING SHOP
205 Mesaba Avenue South.

Mesaba Dairy Co.

PAOLO ANISTADI, PROP.
MILK, CREAM, BUTTERMILK, ETC.
DELIVERED DAILY

Anyone can prove our Milk and Cream the purest and best sold in the city.
Telephone 276 L-2
VIRGINIA :: MINNESOTA

Royal College of Music

333 1/2 Chestnut St. Virginia, Minn.

Prof. Myron Korykora, Leader of Voice, Violin and Piano

H. B. ARNOLD R. C. PICKERING
TELEPHONE NO. 322.

ARNOLD & PICKERING

Attorneys-at-Law
Hawkinson Block, Virginia, Minn.
PRACTICE IN ALL COURTS

Special attention given to homestead applications, probate, contests and other matters in the land office.

Licensed lady embalmer for ladies and children. Selma Ala. 210 Mesaba Ave. N. Phone 483 L-1. 3-8tf

Pay your subscription and look happy.

VIRGINIA LODGE NO. 400, I. O. G. T.

Meets second and fourth Thursday nights each month in North Pole Hall. Friends of temperance are welcome.

MISSABE LODGE NO. 222, I. O. G. T.

Meets every Thursday night at I. O. G. T. Hall at 8:00 o'clock.
A. G. McKenzie, N. G.
James A. Sabin, R. S.
Captain of Degree Team. G. V. Triambie. Visits from outside Brothers always appreciated.

Local News

Wanted.—Girl for general housework. Apply at 408 Locust St. 1p

Remember the change in time of services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, from 10:45 to 10:30 o'clock.

The fire department was called out last evening to a blaze originating from the fire-place in the Karl house on Maple street, occupied by Byron Fuller. But slight damage resulted.

W. E. Kennedy, surveyor general of logs and lumber, was in the city yesterday, leaving for points north. Mr. Kennedy was formerly cashier of the Duluth News-Tribune Co. and just naturally had to drop in and size up a strictly first-class country print shop, which accounts for his visit to the Enterprise sanctum.

A number of prominent Virginians have this week received commissions signed by Gov. Adolph O. Eberhart and by D. M. Neill, chairman of the Minnesota Conservation Commission, as delegates to the second meeting of the Minnesota Conservation and Development Congress to be held at Minneapolis November 19-22.

The annual election of officers of the M. E. Ladies' Aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Jos. Roekilly Wednesday afternoon next. Every member requested to be present.

WANTED—Sewing by the day or at home. Call at 526 Chestnut St. Mrs. John R. Harrington. 2tp

Eugene McCarthy, a local insurance man, returned Wednesday from a business visit at International Falls, Ranier, Baudette and other border points.

Deputy Sheriff William Merrill returned yesterday from a short business trip to Tower.

Oscar Heim, of the claim department of the law firm of Washburn, Bailey & Mitchell, Duluth, transacted business matters in this city yesterday afternoon.

August Walberg attended to business matters in Duluth Tuesday.

Frank Gillmor, of the Virginia & Rainy Lake Company, left Wednesday evening for Cusson, where he will view lumbering operations.

When you want good quality rubbers, go to Kratz's. He sells the best makes.

B. F. Smith, register of deeds, went to Duluth Monday and spends much of the week in becoming acquainted with the duties of his new position. Mr. Smith fills out the unexpired term of the late M. C. Palmer, the salary of the position for the unexpired term going to Mrs. Palmer.

U. G. Holloway, T. Fitzgerald, Ben Milavetz, J. Swanson, and P. S. Engman were among the Virginians who left on the special train yesterday afternoon to hear Theodore Roosevelt give his address in the Zenith City.

The first count of the straw vote at the Fay Hotel was taken yesterday and shows the following results: Wilson, 61; Roosevelt, 40; Taft, 27; Debs, 1.

J. S. Cherne, of the Virginia Plumbing and Heating Company, who was recently awarded the contract for extending the sewer and water mains at Buhl, plans to commence work on the new job soon. He has landed many range jobs for the fall and winter and is employing a large crew of men.

Several Virginians were in Duluth this week to hear Col. Roosevelt give his "Bull Moose" talk. The Virginia "Bull Mooseers" who attended the rally returned on a special train which visited all range cities.

John Shonsky, formerly "make-up" man on the Duluth News-Tribune, who has been visiting his cousin, James Lavick, leaves today in company with Mr. Lavick for a hunting trip at Lake Vermillion.

Men's and boy's Hi-Cut Shoes now in at Kratz's.

Conrad Mattison, alderman from the second by appointment, returned Tuesday evening from a brief visit to Duluth, where he was in attendance at the prohibition meetings held in the Zenith City the first of the week.

Judge W. G. Bonham, of Duluth, attended to professional matters in the city the fore part of the week.

Rev. R. Lappala, of the Finnish Unitarian church, returned Saturday evening from an extended tour of the west, during which he delivered lectures at Butte and many western points. On his return trip he stopped at St. Paul, where he was in attendance at the conference of that denomination, on October 3rd and 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hitchcock, of Hibbing, motored to this city in their automobile Saturday afternoon.

Logging contractors are preparing for the winter season. Every evening scores of "jacks" are to be seen boarding the Rainy Lake trains for the north woods. Many carloads of horses are also being shipped to Kinmount and Cusson, which places will be veritable hives of activity this winter. With a good fall of snow the loggers expect to have a better season than last year.

H. Perlmann and Isidor Shandling, Eveleth clothiers, called on local relatives Wednesday afternoon.

"Pal" Brown's easy victory over "Fighting Dick" Hyland in their recent bout at Calgary, comes as pleasing news to the many friends of the Hibbing battler in this city, who are confident he will soon be the leading fighter in the lightweight ranks. Brown will probably be matched with Joe Mandot or Jose Rivers soon, and much Virginia money will be placed on the Hibbing lad.

Siguard Abraham, of this city, has opened an electric supply shop at the corner of Pine street and Mesaba avenue.

F. Tregarthen, before returning to Virginia they will visit at Marinette and other Wisconsin points.

REAL ACTION

This is the establishment where the "near" style hasn't a ghost of a show—the style must be right, it must be of the true high metropolitan standard or it doesn't enter our doors.

Try on one of our $4.00 Hats and you'll find this proven—inspect our 50c and $1.00 Neckwear and you'll go out with some—compare our $1.50 negligee and pleated Shirts with "regular" offerings elsewhere and you'll buy ours.

Everything here for Men in high grade Furnishings and Hats at modest prices.

B. Levin
Established 1894
Phone 53

"Dot eette German band" arrived in the city yesterday morning and has played many engagements at local buffets. They are playing everything from "Everybody's Doing It" to "Under the Anheuser Bugh."

O. P. Johnson, the real estate man, and A. D. Newcomb, of the First National Bank, were among the Virginians who returned from the Zenith City yesterday morning.

Contractor Andrew Nelson has returned from a business visit at Ely, Tower and other Vermillion range points.

In buying a pair of SHOES

you should be particular to get a Shoe that fits your foot. To get the best in fit, with quality and correct lasts guaranteed, get your next pair at the

New Exclusive Shoe Store
205 Central Ave. South

F. Haller
The Shoe Man

SATISFACTION OR NO SALE

Fred Solberg left yesterday noon on a visit in the Zenith City. While there he attended the address delivered by Colonel Roosevelt.

Miss Ethel Anderson returned Wednesday from Tower and has resumed her duties at the Ormonde Hotel. Her sister, Miss Edna Anderson of Winnipeg, spent a few hours with her yesterday while en route to Tower.

At the straw vote election being held at the Fay Hotel, Wilson and Roosevelt are leading the field. Many ballots have been distributed and the straw vote election promises to make recall and state elections fade into insignificance.

James Mensor, the local hardware agent, left Tuesday evening for Cook, Angola and other points in the north country, on a short business trip.

Paul Sevenich, of the Minnesota Adjustment Company, returned Wednesday evening from a business visit in the Zenith City. William J. Archer, was also among the Virginians who returned Wednesday from Duluth.

Latest style union made flannel shirts. Kratz's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Nathanson went to Superior Tuesday morning, responsive to news of the death at that point of Mrs. Sam Bloom the previous evening. Mr. Bloom will be remembered by many of the Virginia pioneers as a former business man of this city.

Mine Inspector Harvey, of Eveleth, attended to official duties at this point on Wednesday.

The Minnesota Dry Goods Company has disposed of its gent's "unshing" stock to Garon & Soloski, of the Golden Rule store. The Minnesota store is now undergoing repairs and will be thoroughly remodeled. A two story brick addition is being built in the rear, and will be of much convenience to the proprietors, Messrs. Lippman and Lewis, who will handle a larger stock of goods than before. A new front will also be installed.

Sam Irvine and George Olcott, representatives of the Duluth daffies, are attending to business matters in this city this week.

P. R. Vail, of the Virginia Braving Co., left Wednesday noon for a business visit in the Zenith City.

Miss Alstead, of Biwabik, was the guest of Virginia acquaintances Sunday afternoon.

"Dad" Dean, of the Peyton Paper company, arrived in Virginia Tuesday afternoon on one of his regular visits to this city. His fund of stories is larger than ever, and his hearers have been well entertained this week.

Dr. J. M. Fisher, of the Lenont Hospital staff, returned Monday morning from Aurora, where he attended to professional matters in connection with the Lenont hospital at that place.

Mrs. A. D. Heritage returned Sunday from a visit of several days with relatives and friends at Duluth.

C. F. Liscomb, of Washburn, Bailey & Mitchell, Duluth, transacted business matters in this city Wednesday. Following his stay here he left for Aurora and other eastern Mesaba range points.

Fred Gronseth, of Gronseth & Olson, Duluth, returned to his home yesterday morning after having spent a few days here transacting business matters.

Paul Baunky, who has been in the employ of Shelbel & Simon, of the Model Clothing Store, has resumed his old duties as clerk for Paul Hostin.

Fred Maley, who is conducting the Daily Virginian contest, has returned from a business visit at International Falls.

J. I. Lewis, of Minneapolis, a former range merchant who was the guest of his brother, Max Lewis, the forepart of the week, left Tuesday evening on a business visit to International Falls. He now represents a Minneapolis manufacturing company.

William Haenke, owner of the Elmwood Farm, Wolf, was a Virginia visitor Sunday afternoon. He is interested in the Elmwood Dairy of this city. His crops have been very good this year, and he is well pleased with his farm. His enterprise proves what can be done with farming land in the vicinity of Virginia.

Nifty, serviceable, guaranteed mackinaws for men and boys. Kratz's, 408 Chestnut St.

Editor Peter Schaefer, of the Ely Miner, was in the city on Tuesday, calling on the local scribes—or at least trying to do so. But as one of the local brethren was in the Twin Cities and the other in attendance upon business matters in Duluth, Peter failed in his search for a congenial spirit. Sorry we were not at home, as we know Peter's mind was burdened and feel that we could have assisted him in unloading it.

Otto Gavert, who was among the "also rans" in the late primaries, missing out on the republican nomination for treasurer, was in the city Wednesday in attendance upon official duties as deputy internal revenue collector.

J. A. Miller, of Miller's Cafeteria, transacted business matters in the Zenith City Wednesday afternoon.

James C. Poole, of Eveleth, motored to Virginia Wednesday morning. While here he viewed the work being done in remodeling the Minnesota Dry Goods Co. building, which he and Vice-President George A. Whitman, of the American Exchange Bank, own. He is now recovering from an injury to his knee, sustained while jumping off a buggy.

Attorney N. B. Arnold, of Arnold & Pickering, left Wednesday for a short business visit at Duluth.

Otto Tuukkanen, pressman at the Enterprise office, returned Monday evening from Kelsey, where he viewed the potato crop on his farm. The crop of "murrhies" was very good this year and Otto has hired some farm hands to work for a month in digging the tubers.

REAL ESTATE TO TRADE

Wish to trade some good Real Estate for a second hand Automobile in good repair. Write to 481 Mesaba Ave., Duluth, Minn., or Telephone Melrose 480.

G. L. Woods, of Winnipeg, Man., arrived in the city Thursday morning and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Emmons of Hickory street for a few days.

M. S. Hawkins, of the Oliver Iron Mining company, attended to business matters in the Hibbing district yesterday morning.

Rev. Mr. Fadum returned Monday morning from the Bear River district where he conducted services. On his return he made a short stay at Chisholm.

Patrolman Frank Chopp, of the local police force, returned Tuesday evening from a two weeks' vacation at his old home at Rice Lake, Wis.

Special sale prices on boy's overcoats at Kratz's next week.

Miss Nina Nichols, a teacher in the Virginia public schools, spent Sunday with her parents at Buhl.

Ralph Wilk has this week accepted a position with the Enterprise, in the capacity of reporter and local writer. Mr. Wilk was formerly employed on the Eveleth News in similar capacity, and has also done much corresponding for the Duluth press.

Mrs. A. Kenner, of Wyoming avenue, leaves this week for Duluth where she will meet her mother, Mrs. S. Bresky, of Minneapolis, who will spend the winter in this city.

Manager Fred E. Lister of the Mesaba Telephone company, left Tuesday evening on a business visit to Cook, Angola, and other points to the north of Virginia.

Architect William J. Sullivan, of Sullivan, Round & Ellebe, Duluth, arrived in the city Tuesday evening for a short business trip. His firm drew the plans for the Rooney building and other Virginia structures.

A. E. Shipley, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, returned Sunday evening from an extended western trip, during which he visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shipley, former Virginians who now reside at North Yankama, Wash. Mrs. A. E. Bickford, his sister, who accompanied him on the trip, stopped in Duluth for a brief visit with relatives and friends before returning home.

Lachlan MacDonald, of Gardner & MacDonald Co., returned Wednesday afternoon from a short business visit at Gilbert.

The buffets and pool rooms here which have been receiving the returns of the world series between the New York "Giants" and the Boston "Red Sox" have been the scene of large crowds every afternoon during this week. The local fans favor the "Red Sox" and expect the Boston team will win the series.

J. Cummings, of Locust street left Monday afternoon for a week's visit at Tower and other Vermillion range points.

Dr. Larson, the optometrist in at the Hotel Fay the 20th and 21st of every month.

AUTO TOOLS—A number of auto tools found on the Virginia-Tower road at a point about ten miles this side of Tower. Owner may have same by calling on Joseph Karl and paying for this notice.