

Our Alteration Sale Continues to Grip the Attention of Intelligent Shoppers

It is a money-saving event which cannot be ignored.

We are making room so that improvements may be carried out, and our store become one of the most commodious and beautiful in the Northwest. For this reason we are selling OUR NEW GOODS as fast as they arrive at greatly reduced prices. You save from 10 to 25 cents on every dollar's worth of staple goods you buy of us.

On our specials you save half of the regular price.

New coats received daily

—Style, fit and quality unsurpassed—and they are being sold at prices which save you from $5 to $10 on your coat.

Here are a few of our specials offered this week, beginning this morning, Sat., Oct. 26

Men's and Boys' Night Robes, Banquet, 48c worth 75 cents at Boys' and Girls' Fleece Lined Underwear, all sizes, 50c quality 25c
Ladies' Flannel Shirts, in plain gray and assorted colors. Reg. price $1.50, for 93c
Smyrna Rugs, double faced with fringe, full size, 27x42, regular price $2.50 for 79c
A lot of Ladies' Misses' and Children's Hats, felt and velvet, values to $3.50 for 25c
Wide Ribbon, all silk and all colors, values up to 25c per yard for 5c

We want you to visit our store and secure discounts on everything you buy in every department during our alteration sale.

This is your grand, money-saving profit-sharing opportunity.

MINNESOTA DRY GOODS
The People's One Price Store
Virginia Minnesota

Charles Jacobson, a Chestnut street mixerologist, left Tuesday afternoon for Winton on receipt of word that his hotel at that point had been partly burned Monday evening. It is believed the fire started from the kitchen, and Mr. Jacobson expects to learn all the particulars before returning. He has large real estate holdings at Winton and other Vermillion range points.

Ralph Mantel, Axel Turnquist and George Kotze, Eveleth high school football stars, drove over to this city Sunday afternoon in the Mantel automobile. They are taking much interest in the showing being made by the local high school eleven and may arrange a game with the Virginia school.

D. G. McLeod, member of McLeod-Smith firm, Duluth contractors, attended to business matters in this city Tuesday in connection with the erection of the new public library and North Side school, which contracts were awarded to his concern.

Vivian Prince, former Virginian, who recently returned from an extended visit in Montana and other western states, was the guest of Gilbert friends Saturday.

Walter Borgo, local railroad man, left Wednesday noon on a visit with acquaintances in the Zenith City.

Sam Slade, a Mesaba avenue butcher, returned Saturday morning from Forbes with a bag of wild game, the largest seen in this city. He plans to make frequent trips to the north woods to excel his hunting at Forbes.

M. S. Hawkins, local superintendent of the Oliver Iron Mining company, returned Saturday evening from a business visit in the Zenith City.

Miss Lippman of Hibbing, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lippman, Lake Boulevard, returned to her home Sunday afternoon following a short stay in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Prince, Eveleth, returned to their home Sunday afternoon after visiting with Virginia friends.

Peter Holand, village recorder of McKinley, was a Virginia visitor Sunday afternoon, the Enterprise sanatorium being in his line of travel.

Joseph Le Page, Virginia mining man, returned Sunday afternoon from a visit at Eveleth and Gilbert. He was formerly employed at Eveleth and has a host of friends in that city.

A. Cohen, who is employed with the surveying crew at the Franklin mine, spent the week-end at his home at Gilbert.

William McGraw, a former Eveleth fireman who spent the past summer at Forsythe and other Montana points, returned to this city Friday evening. He plans to spend the winter here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. McGraw, Beech street. He has offers of employment here which he is now considering.

County Attorney John H. Norton, Duluth, arrived in this city Sunday evening on a business visit. The first of the year he will lay aside his duties as county attorney to re-enter private practice.

K. C. Kallem, of the A. H. Kreiger company, Duluth, returned to his home Friday following a short stay in this city on business.

B. F. Perigrene, local insurance man, returned Sunday evening from a visit at Biwabik.

Frank Hughes, local real estate man, left Tuesday afternoon on a business visit at Hibbing and Chisholm.

Miss Lucy Pakkala, who is attending the Duluth Normal school, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city at the home of her mother on Maple street. She graduated from the local high school last June and is making a good record at the Zenith City school.

D. R. Black, a Duluth plumbing contractor, attended to business matters in this city Monday and Tuesday of this week.

R. Latz, a member of the Latz Bros. firm, left Sunday noon for a business trip to Minneapolis. He is a former Mill City resident, learning the tailoring trade in that city.

Sheriff John R. Meining, who also conducts a large hostelry in the Zenith City for the benefit of St. Louis county residents, and whose guests are given free transportation to his inn, was registered at the Fay Hotel Tuesday. John, no doubt, came to Virginia that evening to attend the democratic rally held at the Fay Opera House. However, he feels the republicans of the county will give him a big majority at the polls a week from next Tuesday.

Game Warden George L. Woods, Hibbing, returned to his home Sunday afternoon, following a visit here. He is continuing his fight against game law violators in the country to the north of Virginia and is securing many convictions. His work has resulted in less killing of wild game out of season, and as a result his efforts are being upheld by all sportsmen in this part of the state.

G. W. Stewart, superintendent of the Mesaba and Superior divisions and D. M. Pryor, general freight agent, both of the Great Northern road, arrived in this city on their private car Wednesday morning from Grand Rapids. They are making a general inspection tour and found things at the local station in good shape. Following their inspection here they continued on to Hibbing and other points in their district.

The name of the old New England Hotel, which will be opened soon by S. Hue, Duluth, has been changed to the Holland Hotel. The new hotel, which has been thoroughly remodeled, is expected to become one of the leading hosteleries of the city.

Cheer up. The present fight will be over in another ten days, and it will be four years before the next one bobs in sight.

George Olcott, Duluth News-Tribune solicitor, left Monday for a business visit at Eveleth. Following his stay there he will leave for Milwaukee, his former home, where he will spend his vacation.

Miss Costin, a Gilbert teacher, returned to her home after spending Saturday and Sunday in this city, the guest of friends and relatives.

Joseph Backus, local real estate man, met with a slight accident Sunday evening, when his automobile went into the ditch on the road leading to the Iron Range depot. He was forced to leave his car in the ditch for about fifteen minutes until passers-by came upon the scene to assist him in placing the machine on the road again.

Mrs. G. Stevens returned Saturday morning from a visit with friends and relatives at Gilbert. She was accompanied on her return by Miss Rosalie Viger, of Eveleth.

Attorney A. J. Thomas, a prominent Ely lawyer, attended to business matters in Virginia Saturday and Sunday. He is a Vermillion range pioneer and is well pleased with business conditions on the old range.

Engineer C. E. Thomas, in charge of the track laying on the new range streetcar line being done by the Western Construction company, has returned from a business visit at Winnipeg.

William E. Davis, of Maple street, returned Friday evening from a business visit at Hibbing.

Mrs. W. R. Allipson, Hampton, Ia., who has been the guest of Virginia relatives for some time past, has returned to her home.

Misses Grace Darrab, Esther Rabnowitz, Teckla Jackson and Adeline Robertson were among the many Eveleth teachers visiting in this city Saturday afternoon.

A. S. Whiting talked New York Life insurance at Hibbing and Chisholm Monday afternoon.

C. C. Butler, the local paving contractor, transacted business matters at Hibbing Monday afternoon.

Rev. Henry E. Neff, of the First Presbyterian church, returned Friday evening from a visit at Hibbing and Chisholm.

A. N. Thompson, of this city, made a short business trip to Aurora Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Prowse returned Sunday afternoon from a visit at their former home in Gilbert.

Miss Alma Pennock, of the Eveleth schools, was the guest of Virginia acquaintances Sunday afternoon.

C. W. Stahl, an upholsterer, formerly located on Oak street, has removed to his new quarters in the building on south Central avenue, which was at one time occupied with a stock of groceries by Fred Archibald.

M. Cohen, an Eveleth butcher who supplies many Jewish residents of this city with meat, attended to business matters here Sunday afternoon.

John Staver, foreman of the Virginia Foundry & Machinery company underwent an operation at the Fabiola Hospital, Eveleth, this week with Dr. W. E. Harwood who is in charge of the hospital, performing the surgical work. A. C. Osborne, head of the foundry company, was at his bedside during the operation, as were Mrs. Staver and Mrs. Osborne. Mrs. Staver will remain with her husband during his stay at the hospital.

W. L. Karkeet, an Aurora official, attended to business matters in this city Saturday. He is also an old baseball player and bowler, well remembered by local sportsmen.

Virginia's "white way" is being complimented by all the visitors who come to this city, and now Hibbing plans to copy the same by installing a similar system.

Nehemiah Davis, Minot, N. D., "Bull Moose" speaker, is expected to give an address in this city this week on progressive principles of his party. He is making a speaking tour of the range and was scheduled to speak at Hibbing and Grand Rapids before coming to Virginia.

And now comes word from the manufacturers that women have taken to wearing larger stockings. Just before Christmas, too.

Prof. H. V. Kraft, the piano instructor, returned Sunday evening from a Zenith City business visit.

Morris Bright, a McKinley merchant, transacted business matters in this city Saturday afternoon.

W. J. Leonard, an Eau Claire, Wis., resident, who recently purchased five carloads of apples at Lansing and other Michigan points, disposed of them in this city Monday to local grocers. He makes annual trips to the range with his apples and is well pleased with this year's crops.

Court Commissioner William J. Archer of this city, returned Friday from Duluth where he attended to matters in the probate court during the absence of Judge of Probate S. W. Gilpin, formerly of this city. He adjudged Mrs. William Nelson, a Duluthian, sane after her husband, who wished to avoid paying alimony fees, had alleged she was insane.

Alex Kellar has returned from a business visit at Hibbing and Chisholm.

Chisholmites are well pleased with the central energy telephone system being installed there under the direction of Manager Fred E. Lister, of the Mesaba Telephone company. The new system does away with the old "ring" system and is but an example of the good work being done by Mr. Lister, of this city.

Arthur O. Sisson, formerly of Eveleth who is now steamshovel man at the Kinney mine, attended to business matters in this city Friday afternoon.

L. Madden, Cohasset, Minn., is the guest of his son, L. G. Madden, 508 Locust street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Conry, of the European Hotel, left for Duluth Monday. Mr. Conry was formerly connected with the St. Louis Hotel in the Zenith City and is well known at the Head of the Lakes.

R. Lappala, pastor of the new Finnish Unitarian church, attended to business matters in the Zenith City Monday afternoon.

Dr. H. W. Morcom returned Sunday evening from a visit with friends and relatives at Tower.

Mrs. C. W. Blue, who represents a St. Louis fur house, left Friday afternoon for Hibbing, following a short business visit in this city. She has been "making" this territory for the past two years and is regarded as one of the best saleswomen on the road.

Attorney Walter H. Radamacher, of Gilbert, arrived in the city Saturday morning on business. While here he referred the Hibbing-Virginia high school football game and gave general satisfaction. He is an old University of Minnesota star.

BIG REDUCTION SALE

OF LADIES' SUITS AND MILLINERY
AT EXACTLY 1-3 OFF THE REGULAR PRICE

Saturday Morning, Oct. 26

At 9:00 o'clock, we will place on sale our entire stock of Fall Suits and Millinery. Every garment new and up-to-date and made of the very latest material.

The unusually mild weather this season causes us to sacrifice our Suit and Millinery Stock.

Pay particular attention to our window display and the reduced prices. Alterations on Suits during this sale will be charged extra. It is the duty of every woman to come to our store during this event and examine our Suits, as to quality, make and price. There is a great variety of style and material from which to select, and we extend you an earnest invitation to come early.

Following are a few of the bargain prices offered:

$35.00 Suits now . . . $25.00
32.50 Suits now . . . 24.50
29.50 Suits now . . . 22.50
28.00 Suits now . . . 18.00
25.00 Suits now . . . 16.50
22.50 Suits now . . . 13.98
18.00 Suits now . . . 12.00

HATS Your choice of any Hat in our store at exactly ONE-THIRD OFF

CITY NEWS.

F. A. Skarp, the real estate man, attended to business matters at Gilbert Tuesday afternoon.

Max P. Shapiro, leading Duluth real estate man with large holdings in this city, arrived here Wednesday morning to transact business matters.

Walter J. Markham, Fay Hotel proprietor, has returned from an extended visit at Hibbing, Grand Rapids and the Twin Cities.

Mrs. E. R. Brown, Grand Rapids, was the guest of Virginia friends and relatives Tuesday afternoon.

William J. West, Hibbing, and Richard J. Mitchell, Eveleth, prominent Oliver Iron Mining company officials on the range, were business visitors in this city Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Larson, the optometrist is at the Hotel Fay the 20th and 21st of every month.

Register of Deeds B. F. Smith spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in this city.

Spectators at the Misabe depot Tuesday noon were given quite a thrill when a middle-aged woman attempted to board the passenger train after the coaches had left the depot, she hanging onto the sides in a vain effort to enter the closed doors. She motioned, attempting to have the engineer stop the train, but failed and was forced to jump from the moving train and luckily landed safely, the crowd watching her every motion.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Papic, former Evelethians, now of this city, spent Sunday afternoon with friends and relatives at Gilbert.

W. Johnson, Duluth, who has been in this city the past two weeks on business has returned to his home.

James Lavick and Adolph Keller returned Monday morning from a trip to Angola and other points in the north country.

John Costin returned Sunday evening from a visit with friends at Gilbert and other eastern Mesaba range points.

"LET GEORGE DO IT"

Let Us Sell You the Right Load in the Red Winchester Leader Shell

NOW READY FOR SALE

This Load is Stiff Enough to Stop the Swiftest Duck in America- Here it is--

3 1-2 Drams Dupont
1 1-2 oz. No. 6 Tat. Chilled Shot
2 3-4 in. 12 ga. Winchester Leader Shell
Special Wadding

JUST ASK FOR DAVE'S DUCK LOAD

VIRGINIA HARDWARE COMPANY
319 CHESTNUT ST. H. J. GEORGE, Proprietor TELEPHONE 26

WE SELL EVERYTHING IN HARDWARE

REAL ESTATE TO TRADE

Wish to trade some good Real Estate for a second hand Automobile in good repair. Write to 481 Mesaba Ave., Duluth, Minn., or Telephone Melrose 480.

William Brown, a Gilbert resident, returned to his home Sunday afternoon after a short visit in this city. He was formerly a member of Gilbert and Eveleth baseball lines and is well remembered here by local fans.

Judge F. A. Adamson, the Aurora justice of peace, transacted business matters in this city Friday. He has numerous friends in this city who were pleased to meet him again.

Duluth Lots

Four magnificent building lots, size 50x250 feet each, in Duluth's very best residence district. Restricted location—Magnificent Lake and Valley view—Beautiful lots. Just one block from Car line and from $10,000 and $20,000 homes. Lots only $1500 each. Easy terms. I expect to be at Fay Hotel, Virginia, Sunday forenoon. Call on me there or write me at Duluth.

H. H. NESBITT
3831 East 1st Street
DULUTH

ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE LADIES OF VIRGINIA AND VICINITY—
I wish to announce that my new Millinery Parlors, corner of Maple St. and Cleveland Ave., are now open for your inspection.

My stock is replete with all the latest styles and with a full line of seasonable goods.

My prices will always be found right and I ask your inspection and patronage on the merits of my stock and work.

MISS MAY NAGLE

Corner Maple St. and Cleveland Ave.