

WATCH - WATCH - WATCH

"Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before Them"

The Great Event Will Shortly Be Found at the Store of

ALEXANDER REID & COMPANY

Chas. C. Butler
General Contractor.

SEWERS AND CEMENT WORK

STREET WORK

'PHONE 147

Matheson Bldg. Virginia, Minn.

STAMPED WOOD TO BURN

Glove Boxes, Handkerchief Boxes, Long Dresser Boxes, Square, Oval and Round Panels, Frames, Hand Mirrors and many other articles. Also outfits for burning at
A. M. BRIST'S
PICTURE AND FRAMING SHOP
265 Mesaba Avenue South.

Mesaba Dairy Co.
PAOLO ANISTADI, PROP.

MILK, CREAM, BUTTERMILK, ETC. DELIVERED DAILY

Anyone can prove our Milk and Cream the purest and best sold in the city.

Telephone 276 L-2
VIRGINIA - MINNESOTA

Royal College of Music

333 1/2 Chestnut St. Virginia, Minn.

Prof. Myron Korykora, Leader of Voice, Violin and Piano

H. B. ARNOLD R. C. PICKERING

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW

Hawkins Block, Virginia, Minn.

PRACTICE IN ALL COURTS

Special attention given to homestead applications, probate contests and other matters in the land office.

Licensed lady embalmer for ladies and children. Selma Ala, 210 Mesaba Ave. N. Phone 483 L-1. 3-Stf

J. W. Cathcart, Tower, renewed old acquaintances in Virginia Tuesday and Wednesday.

Alex Kellar, a local brewery agent, returned Wednesday afternoon from a trip to Eveleth.

Beatrice Gray, Aurora, was the guest of Virginia friends Saturday and Sunday.

Edward Nemzel, Gilbert, transacted business matters in this city Saturday.

L. A. Simonson, the prohibition candidate for legislature in this district, spent Monday and Tuesday in this city in the interests of his candidacy.

VIRGINIA LODGE NO. 400, I. O. G. T.
Meets second and fourth Thursday nights each month in North Pole H. H. Friends of temperance are welcome.

MISSABE LODGE NO. 222, I. O. O. F.
Meets every Thursday night at I. O. O. F. Hall at 8:30 o'clock.
A. G. McKenzie, N. G.
James A. Sabin, R. S.
Captain of Degree Team. G. V. Trimble.
Visits from outside Brothers always appreciated.

CITY NEWS.

Last night was Halloween, and Virginians had no need to look at the calendar to realize the fact. But aside from planting a few wagons on top of roofs, tying door knobs so occupants of houses had to crawl out through windows, ringing of bells and general transplanting of everything movable, the kids behaved most admirably. They did not touch anything that was nailed down or that presented too great a weight for their combined strength.

Bert Fesler, special city attorney for the city of Virginia at a salary of $25 per day and expenses, is up from Duluth today.

Wilbur Fasteen, an employe of a Mesaba avenue printery, lost the thumb of his left hand Monday, getting it crushed in a press so as necessitate amputation. He will be able to return to work another few days, but the loss of his digit will prove a handicap to him in his trade.

Ernest Lostrum, with Alexander Reid & Co., returned last evening from a brief business visit to the Zenith City.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young spent several days this week at Duluth, visiting former friends and attending to matters of business.

Senator Jas. P. Boyle and Frank Shebat, Eveleth, arrived in the city from Duluth on last evening Winnipeg flyer, making the trip from this city home by auto.

J. A. Sheran, Duluth, transacted business in Virginia yesterday.

F. B. Rosson, Duluth real estate man, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Guy Richards, a Biwabik mining man, attended to business matters in the city Wednesday and Thursday.

The matrons of the Daughters of Erin were entertained Wednesday evening at Our Lady of Lourdes church by the younger members of the order at a pretty Halloween party. Misses Mamie Murphy and May Powers were the maskers who won the prizes in the games which preceded the serving of luncheon.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid will serve a Turkey Dinner—with all the trimmings—at the church parlors on the 14th. Be there? Of course you will.

James Rutz, an Aurora confectioner, returned to his home yesterday after a brief visit with friends in this city.

Wm. J. Gordon and Geo. Defpre, Virginia & Rainy Lake employes at Cassons, were business visitors to the city yesterday.

B. E. Giberson, who has conducted a barber shop in the Opera House block for some time past, has closed a contract with the Mohami Club for the installation of a two chair shop at the Club House and will move his fixtures to that place the coming week.

Dr. N. Booth, Duluth, was a business visitor to the city yesterday.

Mrs. Harlocker, of Coleraine, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Johnson, Locust street.

A. W. Talboys, a pioneer range merchant, now located at Aurora, attended to business matters in this city Friday and Saturday.

Alderman C. W. Lundstrom returned Monday from a short trip to the Meadowlands district, where he spent a couple of days in bagging partridge, of which many are to be found in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. David Shapiro, Cook street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a boy at their home Tuesday. Mr. Shapiro, who is a former baseball player, filling the position of catcher on many range nines, believes his first born will also make a good receiver as to date he has been able to exhibit a lusty voice, which would indicate he will be able to holler at the umpire.

Street Commissioner John Warn, Eveleth, who is an old range resident, renewed acquaintances in this city Saturday. He was well pleased with the appearance of local thoroughfares and admitted the Virginia streets were the best appearing on the range.

Mrs. M. Markham and son, Walter Markham, of the Fay Hotel returned Sunday evening from an automobile trip to Tower and other Vermilion range points.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roland, Tower, were guests of local friends and relatives Sunday and Monday.

State Forest Ranger Fred W. Besette, with headquarters at Orr, Minn., attended to business matters in this city Saturday morning.

Messrs. Edwin Huff and Clyde Robb, Misses Ethel Alexander and Agnes Hall, who were the Sunday guests of Dr. Andrae Hall, returned to their homes in the Zenith City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McNiven, H. Hayes and E. Morgan, were among the Chisholmites who spent Sunday in this city.

Attorney Otto A. Forler and O. H. Griggs, of the water and light company, were among the Virginia nimmers who spent the past week hunting at Pelican lake.

Local militiamen who are members of the Eveleth company are taking much interest in the announcement that members of their organization will be among the soldiers selected to participate in the military reviews at Washington this month. A few of the Virginia members plan to make efforts to make the squad which will go to the national capital.

Corwin Hake left yesterday afternoon for a visit at his former home at Chisholm.

Herman Siegel, an Eveleth merchant, attended to business matters in this city yesterday afternoon.

Coy S. Blair, coach of the local high school football eleven, returned Sunday evening from a visit with acquaintances at his former home at Aurora.

C. C. Butler, member of the firm of Butler-Johnson, local contractors, left yesterday noon for a business visit in the Twin Cities.

R. D. Nelson, Hibbing, M. Markus, Duluth, transacted business matters in this city Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. C. Mikelson has returned from an extended visit at Portland and other coast points where she visited with friends and relatives.

John Siegal and Oscar Engstrom were among the Gilbertes who visited in this city Sunday afternoon.

L. W. Talboys, Duluth, attended to business matters in this city Monday and Tuesday.

F. H. Cornell, a Duluth mining man, attended to business matters in this city Tuesday.

Register of Deeds B. F. Smith spent Tuesday morning in this city with friends and relatives. His son, Stewart, is now deputy register of deeds and is making a good record in his new office.

The M. E. Ladies' Aid will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage.

Not a ghost of a chance of you being chilly and uncomfortable if you're wearing one of our Overcoats—and there's not the slightest chance either of you not being classed in the very best of style.

In exclusive, all wool mixtures and everyone tailored to the acme of perfection from

$25 to $30

Our Suits are indeed worth looking over, too.

B. Levin

Established 1894
Phone 53

Rev. K. Winberg, of the Norwegian M. E. Church leaves this evening for Winnipeg, where he will be in attendance at a church dedication. He expects to be absent from the city for eight days, but services as usual will be held at the church on Sunday next, Sunday School at noon and evening services at 7:45.

J. W. Murphy, the democratic candidate for sheriff, campaigned at Hibbing Monday in the interest of his candidacy.

N. B. Foote, a St. Paul landscape artist who has done considerable work in this city and other range points in his line, is attending to business matters here this week.

J. K. Watt returned Friday evening from a visit at Tower and other Vermilion range points.

Chief of Police Thomas Finnigan and Sergeant Jacob Kentia, of the Eveleth police force, motored over to this city in the Thomas automobile on business Tuesday evening. The Eveleth department has greatly improved under Chief Finnigan's direction, and the day force is now required to work only eight hours and the night policemen ten hours.

In buying a pair of SHOES

you should be particular to get a Shoe that fits your foot. To get the best in fit, with quality and correct lasts guaranteed, get your next pair at the

New Exclusive Shoe Store
208 Central Ave. South

F. Haller
The Shoe Man

SATISFACTION OR NO SALE
We do repairing of all kinds.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hawkins and Miss Mable Thorpe, who has been their guest, motored to Tower Sunday afternoon.

In order to care for our constantly increasing business we have found it necessary to employ a night shift, and in order to avoid the holiday rush we will give a special discount on all orders for party gowns and utility dresses received between now and November 8.

ADELLA THORNHILL, Mgr. Bon-Ton Dressmaking Parlors, Second Floor Lyric Block.

W. H. Ryan, real estate man, C. H. Giddings, insurance man, and Lee M. Barrett, a commission man, were among the Zenith City residents who attended to business matters in this city Saturday.

J. Feinberg, of the Shanedling Clothing company, returned Sunday evening from an extended business visit to Chicago, Cleveland and eastern markets.

R. E. De Warde, the Duluth architect, who is supervising the work on the new library and North St. W. school for the contractors, MacLeod-Smith, Duluth, returned Monday morning from the Zenith City where he spent the week-end.

Oscar Sandberg, a local jeweler, left Tuesday evening on a visit at Rice Lake and other points to the north of this city.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Golden are enjoying a visit from Miss Hattie Grant, Minneapolis, at their home on Central avenue.

Mrs. A. Kenner, Wyoming avenue, and Miss Ethel Wilk, Beech street, were among the Virginians visiting at Eveleth Monday afternoon. They formerly resided in the neighboring city.

J. M. Thurston, a local insurance man, attended to business matters at McKinley yesterday afternoon.

Rev. J. W. Bornberger, a traveling evangelist who preaches the gospel among the lumberjacks in the Virginia & Rainy Lake Lumber company camps to the north of this city, was here yesterday making preparations for his winter meetings. His canoe, "The Lafayette," which he used considerably the past summer on Lake Vermilion with "Sky Pilot" Jack Higgins, is being shipped from this city to his home at Swan River, Minn.

P. R. Vail returned Wednesday evening from an extended business visit in the Zenith City.

Paul Maras, a Hibbing merchant who plans to make an automobile ride from his home to Chicago soon, in company with A. C. Schwane, also of Hibbing, was the guest of Virginia acquaintances yesterday morning.

Probate Judge S. W. Gilpin, formerly of this city, returned to his home in the Zenith City yesterday noon after a short stay in Virginia on business.

Gordon Truogrove, Elm St. Hill, Walter Turquist and W. Moylan, Evelethians, visited here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schulze, Maple street, are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Marcus L. Fay and children of Duluth.

Thomas Storey and Archie Boyd, Duluth deputy game wardens, attended to business matters in this city Friday and Saturday.

C. E. Thomas, head engineer of the Mesaba Construction company which is laying tracks on the new range street car line, was a Duluth business visitor Wednesday.

Merl Maslner, who recently left this city after a long stay here is now employed at Moorhead, Minn., according to word received from him recently.

Mrs. I. Melavits and children, Maple street, returned Sunday afternoon from a visit at Gilbert and Aurora.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church held a regular weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. E. D. Becker, Central avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. C. V. Malmgren returned Friday evening from a short visit with acquaintances at Duluth.

Otto Gavret and E. F. Chalk, Duluth, were among the Zenith City residents visiting in this city Friday and Saturday.

Editor Alfred E. Pfrommer and Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Harvey, Eveleth, were among the out-of-town residents who attended the republican rally at the roller rink in this city Friday evening.

F. Linder and H. Linder, former Virginia clothiers who are now engaged in the picture business at Chicago, transacted business matters in this city the past week. While here H. Linder became ill with rheumatism and was forced to go to Duluth to receive electrical treatments.

Mrs. S. Mattson, Mesaba avenue, is at Soudan attending her daughter, Miss Rebecca Mattson, who was recently operated on by Dr. Burns for appendicitis.

Henry Shanedling, the local clothier and drygoods man, is spending the week-end in the Twin Cities on business.

Axel Dahl, a local high school graduate who was raised in this city, has been chosen quarterback of the freshmen eleven at the University of Chicago. He is also doing well in his studies and his many friends and relatives in this city are well pleased with the news of his success, which comes from the Windy City.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Keith enjoyed a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Sam MacQuade, Keewatin, Sunday.

J. O'Rourke, Biwabik, is the new conductor on the McKinley to Virginia run on the Iron Range road, succeeding George Mills who has been transferred to Biwabik.

H. H. Kelley, Grandfield, Mich., attended to business matters in this city yesterday.

John Ketola, of Ketola Bros., attended to business matters at Duluth yesterday.

Jacob Stein, a veteran Eveleth clothing man, attended to business matters in this city yesterday afternoon.

Douglas Greeley, president of the State Bank, left yesterday noon for a visit at his old home at Pine City, Minn.

Morris Bright and children, McKinley, returned to their home Sunday evening following a short visit in this city with friends and relatives.

Nathan Kellar and "Ted" McKenzie were among the Virginia residents who attended the Duluth Adams-Minneapolis Beavers game at Duluth Sunday afternoon, which resulted in a 13-13 tie.

Al Schroeder, H. Olson and N. Kellar were among the Virginians who spent the week-end in the Zenith City.

C. W. Dean, the temperance worker who has given many addresses in this city during the present campaign, left for Eveleth Sunday afternoon following a short stay here in which he did some further work in behalf of his party.

John Schwab, an Eveleth electrician, assisted William Tritchler, of the Tritchler Electric company, the past week on work in Virginia and vicinity. Mr. Schwab is considering making his permanent home in this city.

Charles Trezona, Ely, and M. H. Godfrey, Coleraine, were among the prominent out-of-town mining men who spent Friday and Saturday in this city. While here they also attended the republican rally at the roller rink.

Order Your

Storm Doors

AND

Storm

Windows

OF THE

Minnesota Screen Co.

Joseph Frank, a Bessemer, Mich., boy who spent the past summer in this city and who for a time was employed at the Enterprise office, left Saturday to spend a few months at his home. He expects to return to the range after the first of the new year.

Mrs. J. K. McDonald is spending the week at Coleraine, the guest of Mrs. J. H. Treider.

R. C. Sermon, a local machinist, returned Sunday evening from a visit in the Zenith City.

E. J. Steuwald, the Chestnut street jeweler, returned Tuesday evening from a business visit in the Zenith city and at Two Harbors.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Roop, Gilbert, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Chellow, Aurora, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wallgren, Lake Boulevard, the forepart of the week.

Arthur O. Sisson, a Kinney mining man, returned to his duties yesterday afternoon following a short business visit in this city.

N. J. Smith, of the Virginia Store company, left yesterday noon on a business visit in the Zenith City.

The new residence erected by Contractor Peter Grande on Locust street for Alderman Dan Coffey is nearing completion and will soon be occupied by Mr. Coffey and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Milavets, and Miss Beatrice Kanter, left yesterday noon for the Zenith City to attend the annual ball given at the Spalding Hotel by the Ladies' Aid Society of Emanuel Synagogue.

NOTICE

ASHES and SLOPS

Should not be placed in garbage cans.

Drain your garbage and wrap in paper before placing in can.

The public is hereby notified that cans containing ASHES and SLOPS will not be emptied by the city garbage collector.

BOARD OF HEALTH