NO MORE PRANKS ON HALLOWE'EN

Gilbert Literary Society Debates
the Question and Decides Against Small Boy.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

GILBERT, Nov. 2.—Halloween pranks must be abolished. This was decided upon yesterday afternoon at the semi-monthly meeting of the Gopher Literary society when four able speakers debated the question from every angle; and at the conclusion of the discussion the judges decided that the affirmative was their side. John Leslie and Alfred Rock spoke in affirmative of the proposition and Arthur Hill and Frank Indihar took the negative.

The balance of the society's meeting was devoted to the following program:

Essay, Manly Tibblits; Declamation, Walter Freeman; Halloween Story, Alfred Matt; Declamation, John Downing; Essay, Halloween Pranks, Harry Thomas; Declamation, Clarence Martin.

The Athenian society also met during the afternoon at the high school and presented the following program: Instrumental solo, Jennie Moe; Editorials, Sarah Gordon; Geological Explorations, Salma Jacobson; Advertisements, Mildred Stevens; Vocal solo, Viola Kleren; Original Story, Ins Beldo; Poem, Goldie Finn; Good Stories of the Day, Florence Wiggins; Critic's Report, Miss Chinn.
