

Nine More Shopping Days
Till Xmas

ALEXANDER REID & COMPANY

Nine More Shopping Days
Till Xmas

The Xmas rush is now on. Just nine more shopping days till Xmas. Commencing Saturday, the 14th, the store will remain open every evening until 10 o'clock.

HOLIDAY SUGGESTIONS. WHAT YOU CAN BUY

A silk dress pattern per yard..... 49c to $1.75
 A wool dress pattern per yard..... 25c to $2.25
 A silk waist pattern per yard..... 75c to $2.00
 A linen table cloth per yard..... 50c to $2.25
 A lunch cloth each..... $1.19 to $5.00
 Fine towels each..... 25c to $1.00

Guest huck toweling per yard..... 39c to $1.00
 Madeira napkins and doilies each..... 25c to $1.50
 Hemstitched pillow cases each..... 35c
 Hemstitched sheets each..... $1.10
 Wool blankets pair..... $5.00 $6.50 $10.00
 Cotton blankets pair..... 79c to $3.50

A pair of bed pillows per pair..... 98c to $8.00
 A bed comfort each..... $1.75 to $6.00
 A white bed spread each..... 98c to $6.00
 Silk hosiery per pair..... 50c to $2.00
 Musing underwear per garment..... 39c to $3.25
Books, Stationery, Bags, Handkerchiefs, Toilet Articles, Perfumery, Cut Glass, Toys, Dolls.

CITY NEWS.

Julius Shanedling attends to business matters in the Zenith City today.

The N. E. Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors.

Remember the apron and fancy work sale and social by the M. E. Aid at the church parlors this and tomorrow afternoons.

Members of the arrangements committee of the local order of Bnai Brith are making efforts to secure a well known Milwaukee speaker to deliver the principal address at the banquet planned by the lodge. A dance will follow the banquet which will be held next month.

Miss Inez Graham, of Two Harbors, arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon for a short visit with local friends and relatives.

F. Ford, Iron Range agent at Embarras, attended to business matters in this city Tuesday afternoon.

L. M. Brownell, an Ely resident, attended to business matters in this city Sunday and Monday.

A. J. Kriedler, a Zenith City piano man, attended to business matters in this city Monday morning.

Mrs. S. Bresky, Minneapolis, left yesterday afternoon for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. Abramson, Aurora, following an extended stay here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. Kenner.

Mayor M. A. Murphy returned Wednesday evening from a short business visit at the head of the lakes.

S. Kahn, of Eau Claire, Wis., has been the guest of his sisters, Mesdames H. Baer and A. Keller, during the week. He expects to leave for his home on Sunday.

Ben Milavitz attended to business matters at Mountain Iron Wednesday afternoon.

H. Kaplan, formerly of Duluth, arrived in the city Tuesday evening and plans to open a meat market here this month.

L. J. Patek, an Ironwood, Mich., cigar manufacturer, arrived in the city Tuesday evening on a short business visit.

C. A. Knippenberg, a Duluth real estate man, attended to business matters in this city Wednesday morning.

Paul Sevenik, of the Minnesota Adjustment company, returned Monday afternoon from a short business visit at Buhl and other western Mesaba range points.

William J. Schulze, the local mining man, attended to business matters at the head of the lakes yesterday afternoon.

L. S. Simonson, Duluth, erstwhile candidate on the prohibition ticket for state legislature from this district, left yesterday noon for his home following a short business visit in this city.

At a meeting of the Commercial Club to be held at the city hall this evening a number of matters of interest will be under discussion, one of them being the prospective decorating of Chestnut street for the holiday season. The annual election of officers of the Club may also be considered, but if so there can be but little improvement made on the present officials, who have given of their time and energy in a most appreciable manner.

F. A. Skarp, the Mesaba avenue real estate man, returned Tuesday evening from a short business visit at Chisholm and other western Mesaba range points.

H. George, of the local branch of the Fitger Brewing company, returned Tuesday afternoon from a short business trip at Gilbert and other eastern Mesaba range points.

William Getty, a Duluth real estate man, returned to his home Monday following a short business visit in this city.

In buying a pair of SHOES

you should be particular to get a Shoe that fits your foot. To get the best in fit, with quality and correct lasts guaranteed, get your next pair at the

New Exclusive Shoe Store

208 Central Ave. South

F. Haller

The Shoe Man

SATISFACTION OR NO SALE
We do repairing of all kinds.

C. W. Houston, superintendent of the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific division, returned Tuesday evening on the Flyer from a short Duluth business visit.

Mrs. A. C. Osborn and little daughter left Wednesday for a week's visit as the guest of Duluth friends.

Deputy Sheriff A. Mollan attended to business matters at Hibbing and Chisholm Tuesday afternoon.

Architect Anthony Puck, Duluth, who drew the plans for the remodeled Alexander Reid block, attended to business matters in this city Tuesday evening. During the day he was at Aurora, where he recently completed the erection of a new high school.

Mrs. Frank Wren and daughter, Cleveland avenue, returned the first of the week from a short visit with friends and relatives at Two Harbors.

Theodore MacKenzie, of the Missabe depot, returned Sunday evening from a week-end visit at his former home at the head of the lakes. He is well known in the Zenith City, having played on many of Duluth's athletic teams.

D. MacDonald, a Carlton, Minn., resident, attended to business matters in this city Saturday morning.

W. T. Bailey, Sr., of the Bailey Lumber company, came up from Duluth Saturday evening for a short visit with his local relatives and returned Sunday afternoon to his home.

Misses Mildred Sayer and Nellie MacFadden, and Mrs. E. G. Tracy were among the Buhl residents visiting in this city Saturday and Sunday.

Anthony Pryor, Charles Levant and Percy Pryor were among the Evelethians visiting in this city Sunday evening.

J. E. Lunn, superintendent of the Biwabik schools, was a Virginia visitor Sunday and Monday.

Alderman Adolph Keller returned Sunday from a short business visit at the head of the lakes.

George E. Jensen, a local vocal instructor, returned Saturday morning from a business visit at Gilbert.

Manager Fred E. Lister, of the Mesaba Telephone company, left yesterday afternoon for a short business trip at Biwabik and other eastern Mesaba range points. He was accompanied by Manager George V. Holcomb, of the local exchange.

L. Erickson, auditor of the Western Construction company, returned Monday morning from a short visit at Duluth.

FOR RENT—Modern house. Enquire at 128 Locust St. 1tp

Rev. Henry E. Neff, of the Presbyterian church, left Tuesday noon for a short business visit at the head of the lakes.

Attorney J. C. MacGillivray, of Eveleth, attended to professional matters in this city Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. F. Prestidge, this city, a "lumberjack evangelist," plans to leave soon for Cusson, Kinmount and other points to the north of this city to preach among the woodsmen.

S. Garon, of Garon & Soloski, local clothiers, has recovered from an attack of typhoid fever and was able to be around Wednesday. His speedy recovery is pleasing news to his many friends.

Mrs. B. Shroeder and children, Minneapolis, returned to their home Sunday noon following a five week's visit in this city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Shanedling, the latter being Mrs. Shroeder's sister.

Attorney M. H. MacMahon left Monday noon for a short business visit at his former home at the head of the lakes.

H. Erickson, auditor of the Western Construction company, returned Monday morning from a week-end visit at the head of the lakes.

Arnold Hawkinson, who is employed on the new street car line at Ellis, spent the week-end at his home here.

A. B. Slet, a Duluth furniture manufacturer, attended to business matters in this city Monday afternoon.

R. L. Durham, a local typewriter agent, returned Monday evening from a short business visit at Hibbing.

O. J. Friend, a local glass salesman, left Saturday evening on the Canadian Northern Flyer for a business visit at International Falls and other border points.

Dr. Andrea Hall returned Friday morning from a professional visit at Biwabik and other eastern Mesaba range points.

Ben Milavitz, Hickory street, returned Sunday evening on the Canadian Northern Flyer from a short business visit in the Zenith City.

Miss Florence Johnson, formerly clerk at the Ormonde Hotel, now a resident of the Zenith City, is visiting local friends and relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brown, of the Missabe depot, are spending a month's vacation at Los Angeles and other coast points. During their absence Frank MacCartney, of the freight department, will be in charge of the station. He attended the meeting of the Missabe station agents held in Duluth Monday afternoon.

John P. Toeller, a local insurance man, returned Monday afternoon from a short business visit at Hibbing.

Paul J. Erickson, of the insurance department, and Cashier Western, of the First State Bank, attended to matters of business in Duluth on Friday and Saturday last.

AFTER JAN. 1, 1913

My Store will be closed at 6:00 o'clock every evening except Saturdays and pay-days

B. LEVIN

F. A. Skarp, a local real estate man, attended to business matters at the head of the lakes yesterday afternoon.

Julius Sabotta, of the Canadian Northern road, left yesterday noon for a short business visit at the head of the lakes.

"Bemidji is fortunate in securing for music instructor in its public schools, Miss Helen McDonald of St. Cloud, who for the past two years held a similar position at Virginia, Minn. She will begin her duties next Monday."—Herald, Duluth.

Herbert Krantz, formerly night clerk at the Ormonde Hotel, returned to this city Tuesday morning following a ten days visit at the head of the lakes.

Manager Fred E. Lister, of the Mesaba Telephone company, attended to business matters at his former home at Eveleth Tuesday afternoon.

George A. Kohrt, a Hibbing merchant, was a Virginia business visitor Tuesday evening.

"Dad" Dean was a regular Virginia visitor Monday in the interests of the Peyton Paper company.

Walter J. Markham, proprietor of the Fay Hotel, left Sunday morning for a short business visit at his former home at Bemidji. On Monday his mother, Mrs. M. Markham, left for a week's visit at Duluth and the Twin Cities.

N. A. Beatty, a Cook resident, attended to business matters in this city Saturday and Sunday.

William Markus, a Gilbert resident, spent the week-end in this city with friends and relatives.

Mrs. William Merrill, of the Fay Hotel, left yesterday afternoon for an extended visit at her former home at Eau Claire, Wis.

Morris Shanedling of the Shanedling Drygoods store, returned Wednesday evening on the Canadian Northern Flyer from a short business visit in the Zenith City.

Stanley Way, of the A. B. Coates offices, left Wednesday noon for a short business visit in the Zenith City.

C. Gilbert, of the Peyton Paper company, attended to business matters in this city Monday and Tuesday. He recently joined the Duluth company, and is working on the range under the direction of "Dad" Dean.

A. M. Maloney, a Mountain Iron resident, attended to business matters in this city Monday and Tuesday.

Arthur Eddy, of the Eddy Livery, attended to business matters at Gilbert Wednesday afternoon.

Hans Wahl, a Duluth candy salesman, was a Virginia business visitor Monday morning.

W. F. Stewart, a Duluth decorator, attended to business matters in this city the forepart of the week.

Chief of Police Ellis Walsh returned Sunday evening on the Canadian Northern Flyer from a short business visit at his former home in Duluth.

James Robb and Henry Griswold, leading Eveleth residents, have been spending the week in this city serving on the petit jury at the local district court house.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

I have decided to leave Virginia and offer my entire stock at cost, consisting of Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Cut Glass and Silverware. Everything will be sold. This will give everybody an opportunity to buy cheap Christmas presents. We are giving away an now on display in our window. With every dollar purchase we give one chance on the Punch Bowl. Come in early and make your selection, and if you haven't all the money, make a small deposit and we will hold the goods until Christmas.

$85.00 Cut Glass Punch Bowl Free

EVERYTHING MUST BE SOLD BY JAN. 1, '13

Come in and look over our stock before you purchase, we can save you money.

All Engraving Done Free

E. J. STEUERWALD, The Jeweler

328 Chestnut St., Virginia

For Christmas Goods

You will save one third to one half on CHRISTMAS purchases at the Minnesota Dry Goods Co.