Till Plaster Treatment

Come to Superior, Wis. We are located in the Hammond block, 819 Tower avenue, rooms 201, 202, 203, 204. Let us prove to you that we have the most wonderful plaster remedy that was ever put on the market. Penetrating quickly, relieving old chronic, deep seat ailments, and all aches and pains due to any spinal or muscular ce-regements.

Till plaster treatment is the treatment for all diseases of the Sto-ach, Liver, Kidneys, Heart, Lungs, Nerves and Rheumatism, Diabets, Fits, Asthma, Catarrh, Deafnes, Eczema, Dropsy, Bedwetting, Chie Appendicitis, Gall Stone, Gout, Piles, Leg Ulcers and all serious diseases of Men, Women and Children, never thoroughly understood by the family physician.

MANY GRATEFUL PATIENTS
from nearly every country, restored to health and happiness are praising the Till Plaster treatment. Their phenomenal record of cures has startled the people from ocean to ocean and their new system of treatment will soon revolutionize the practice of medicine in America. No matter who has failed to cure you, the time has come when it is worth your while to come hundreds of miles to secure this one sure way of curing disease rather than subject yourself to the dangerous experience of inexperienced physicians.

The Enterprise editor takes pleasure in extending to all our friends —and our enemies if we have such—the compliments of the season, wishing for each and all a Happy, Prosperous New Year and many returns of the day.

Judge Montague left Monday for Holiday visit with his family at his home at Crookston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson, of Iron Junction, former Virginia residents, were over-Christmas guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs.
R. L. Given, at Bemidji.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lillenthal, of Orr, were Virginia visitors on the day before Christmas. Louie says he came down on purpose to see the street cars run, remembering as he does when the Virginia townsite was an unbroken wilderness, and averts that he expects to live to see the day the line will be extended to the fine agricultural districts to the north.

General Manager J. D. Ireland, of the M. A. Hanna Company, was up-from Duluth Monday, looking after after matters in connection with his position.

bert, was a Virginia visitor Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Truettner, of Bessemer, Mich., were Christmas guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
J. H. Cudlip. Mr. Truettner is vice-president and cashier of the First National Bank of Bessemer. The Enterprise scribe was formerly in business in the Goebic city, and while Mr. Truettner was but a youth at the time of our residence he took occasion to drop in for a pleasant chat and acquaintanceship during his stay in the city.

strand's parents.

Joseph Kieren, Gilbert, attended to business matters in the city yesterday.

Fred B. Rossom, Duluth, was a business visitor to the city yesterday. Mr. Rossom was a former Virginian, and exemplifies his faith in the future of the Queen City of the Ranges by retaining heavy local interests.

M. A. Murphy, President Boylan of the city council and Alderman Heritage were Duluth visitors yesterday as a committee appointed by the city council to seek the placing of the tax rolls with the city clerk for collection. Heretofore the tax rolls have been in the hands of the American Exchange bank, and satisfactory service has resulted.

John Dyste, manager of the Miller Cafeteria at Hibbing prior to the sale of the place on Monday, is in the city today. He may return to permanently reside here.
