

CHISHOLM POOR FUND IS GROWING

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

CHISHOLM, Dec. 8.—Manager Remington of the Doric theater has announced that he will give fifty per cent of the receipts of his show house on Friday, Dec. 20 for charity.

The potato admission plan which he launched some time ago providing that the only admission needed for a matinee was three potatoes, netted nearly twenty bushels which were turned over to Poor Commissioner W. E. Talboys for distribution. Manager Remington also each Tuesday evening given away fifteen or twenty dollars worth of provisions through his country store plan. The sale of tickets on Dec. 20 is expected to add another hundred dollars to the fund for the Chisholm poor, which is already $226.66.

Those who took an active part in the sale of tags last week are: Florence Neally, Winnifred Lewis, Ruby Kneebone, Mrs. Leo Mitchell, Mrs. Fred Godell, Lenora Cummings, Julia Cummings, Florence Brown, Mrs. Clarence Taylor, Mrs. Nels Nelson, Mrs. Carl Gyllen, Mrs. E. H. Nelson, the Lewis & Manson store, Sape-ro & Sons Department store, Jasper-Fjeldstad store, Vera Gould, Mrs. Willard Bayliss, Grace Rowell, Leathe Wright, Mrs. Fred Lang, Mrs. Paul LaLonde, Ruth Taylor, Dorothy Taylor, Sylvia Hirstio, Mrs. Mark Harris, Mrs. E. H. Loofburrow, Miss Keefe, Mrs. R. S. O'neil, Master Leonard Johnson, Ellen Lawrence, Miss Gandsey Celia Leary, Sidna Lewis, Mary Wright, Bess Donaldson, Mrs. Fred Hurt, Mrs. C. R. Woods, Mrs. Eddie Rupp, Mrs. Ferd Drotning, Mrs. Charles E. French, Mrs. A. B. Kirk, Maitland Tripp, Florence Erickson, Vera Erickson, Lucille Nelson, Murdo Murray, Harold Kirk Clifford Murray, Edmund Taylor, Donald Murray, William Conley and the Fraternal Order of Eagles. The money was turned over to Maitland Tripp where it will be held until the full receipts are in.