

MRS. KELLEY NEW HEAD FOR YEAR

Bishop's Club Elects Officers and Appoints Several Committees at Final Meeting of the Season.

VOLUNTEERS WILL PUT READING INTO HOSPITALS

Miss Zalk, Mrs. Ball, Messrs. Erdtman and Lavick on Musical Program.

Business, a musical program and a social hour made the final meeting of the Bishop's club last night one of the most successful of the year. Mrs. A. V. Kelley was elected president, the other new officers being: First vice president, Mrs. W. H. Magle, second vice president, Mrs. E. P. Krelmer; third vice president, Mrs. F. M. West; secretary, Miss Chloe Thibert; treasurer, Mrs. A. M. Lyons; historian, Miss Cora Davis; librarian, Mrs. Albert Poirier. Committees were appointed as follows: Membership—Mrs. Fred A. Sermoy, Miss Jane Crowley, Mrs. A. M. Russell; program; Miss Chloe Thibert, Mrs. J. F. Killorin, Mrs. George E. Lynott, Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Lyons.

A large committee of young women will work in the interests of the art exhibit. They are Misses Letendrez, Maude H. Bolln, Grace Bertram, Jane Crowley, Kittle Farrelly, Cora Davis, Gertrude Gonska, Theresa Lynn, Elizabeth Sullivan, Nelle Sullivan, Louise Lyons, Lou Klichli, Clara Kenny, Mary Shesgren, Grace Sheridan, Nell Reau, Gertrude Knauf, Nettie Fiebigger, Theresa Fogarty, Lillian Gowan and Pearl Chalk.

A number volunteered to distribute literature to the hospitals and other institutions during the summer. The officers and committees will form an advisory board for extension of the work of the club. South America is the subject for historical study next year.

A musical program of unusual excellence included the following numbers: Violin duet by the Lavick brothers, with Miss Zalk as accompanist; vocal solos by Sigurd Erdtman; violin solo by Henry Lavick and vocal solos by Mrs. Leo A. Ball. Mrs. Robert B. Ligget gave a number of readings.

Mrs. A. A. Deslauriers and Miss Lynn were hostesses with others of the officers and committees in the social hour closing the evening.