(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

VIRGINIA, June 1.—The graduating class of the Virginia high school this year numbers 27 and is the largest that has ever gone out from any school on the range. The following are the members:

Latin science course—Samuel L. Cohen, Marie E. Fleming, Demgen W. Hayes, Theresa E. Hovland, Helma S. Johnson, Julia A. Larson, Victor F. Larson, Esther V. Linman, Ralph C. Lundberg, Ida S. Mattson, Halver C. Olson, Lucy I. Pakkala, James J. Quayle, Hazel M. Reid, Elizabeth C. Rooney, Angela E. Smith.

Modern English course—Agnes P. Anderson, Ward E. Becker, Ireen K. Gauthier, John A. Grande, Arnold Hawkinson, Morris L. Hooper, Harlan W. Johnson, Charles I. Pelto, Emily M. Pue and Roger C. Williams.

The class play in which all of the seniors take a part, will be given at the Roosevelt building auditorium Thursday evening, June 6. Rehearsals are being held six nights a week for this event. The class play is written by Lindsey Barbee entitled "Co-education, a Glimpse From Behind." It contains three acts, and has been rehearsed and will be presented under the direction of Supt. Lafayette Bliss.

Rehearsals are also going on for the commencement exercises, which will also be held in the Roosevelt auditorium, the evening of June 12. The schools will close for the term Friday, June 14, and nearly all of the teachers will leave the city for their homes or to take up studies at summer course schools.
