

VIRGINIA STUDENTS WHO WILL GO AWAY TO SCHOOL

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

VIRGINIA, Aug. 30.—Among the graduates of the Virginia high school who will attend higher educational institutions this fall are the following:

Samuel L. Cohen, who won the Bliss gold medal for the best general average in studies, will begin an academic course at the Michigan state university.

Harlan Johnson, 1912, will take a course in agriculture at the state university of Minnesota.

Misses Blanche, Grace and Enid Wilcox will attend the state university.

Carl M. Hawkinson, will resume his studies at the state university.

Miss Dalle Lindsay will be a student at the state university.

Dan Mahoney will return to the state university and continue his studies at that institution.

Gerald Roskilly will resume his studies at the state university.

Stephen Quayle, Vernon Johnson and Miss Hulda M. Johnson will be enrolled at the state university of Wisconsin.

Miss Ray Simons will attend Macalester college.

Misses Esther Lindman, Theresa Hovlind, Gladys Roskilly and Gladys Parmalee will attend the state normal school at Duluth.

Miss Anna Sullivan and Miss Cella Murphy will be students at the Winona normal school.

Leighton R. Simons will study law at the University of Minnesota.

Axel Dahl will be a student at the University of Chicago.

Dagmar Dahl will be a student at the University of Minnesota.

Charles Lundmark and Charles Butler will be students at the University of Minnesota.

William Hooper will take a course at the South Dakota School of Mines, and Lester N. McDonald will attend the school of mines at Houghton, Mich.

Misses Genevieve A. Murphy, Lucy A. Pakkala, Irene K. Gauthier and Emily Pue will attend the state normal at Duluth.

Mrs. Slummer—"Now if you will be a good, honest boy, you might be a great statesman when you grow up."

Chimmie—"Good an' honest statesman, wach yer tryin' to gimme?"