

MODERN SAMARITANS

GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Duluth council, No. 3, and the Beneficent degree, Modern Samaritans, entertained at a program and dancing party last evening in K. P. hall, 118 West Superior street, following a short business session. Piano selections were given by Miss Hortense Carr, and a group of songs by little Godfrey Azine were received with enthusiasm. Mrs. N. H. Wilson read a humorous paper on fraternal orders, and a reading, "Abram Hersey," that told a tragic incident of war, was given by W. E. McEwen, with another equally interesting story of western Canada. A card party and dancing will be features of the next meeting, Monday evening, with Mrs. C. B. Purdy, Mrs. E. W. Merritt and Miss Alice Jenson as hostess.

The season's entertainments will close the first of June, with a street carnival and minstrel show, with Richard Jones as chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.
