

WEST DULUTH BRIEFS

R. Granquist, electrician, 304 Central

Arthur Baker, No. 2 Munger block, underwent a surgical operation for appendicitis at West Duluth hospital yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Garish, who has been at Winnipeg, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Batley, 110 North Fifty-fourth avenue West. Mr. and Mrs. W. Carey of Seattle, were also guests at the Batley home this week, en route to Detroit, Mich., where they will make their home.

The Mother's club of the Merritt school, Fortleth avenue West and Fifth street, will meet tomorrow afternoon at the school at 3:45 o'clock. Mrs. Alfred Jaques will give a talk on "Patriotism," and vocal numbers will be rendered by Mrs. David Adams.

William Thornson of Winnipeg, is in West Duluth on a combined business and pleasure trip.

John Schreidler of Proctor transacted business in West Duluth yesterday.

R. E. Stokes, N. H. Colgan and G. L. Uber arrived yesterday from New Castle, Pa., to work at the Gary steel plant.

Mrs. Julia Mellin, 307 North Fifty-third avenue West, left yesterday afternoon for a three months' visit to her former home in Europe.

The Ladies' Aid society of Third Swedish Baptist church will be entertained this afternoon by Mrs. Emil Soderberg, 327 North Sixty-third avenue West.

George P. Miller, 1220 North Central avenue, expects to leave today for Mound, Minn., where he will take charge of the Chatham, one of the Lake Minnetonka hotels, during the summer months.

Mrs. J. A. Beatty, 226 North Fifty-sixth avenue West, has as her guests Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Chenner of Kelsey.

William Arbour, 214 North Fifty-second avenue West, was given a suspended sentence for drunkenness yesterday morning by Judge Lanners. Arbour was arrested Tuesday night, while trying to throw his wife out of the house, the police say. His charge was drunk and disorderly.