

AAD TEMPLE SHRINE GIRLS RETURN FROM ST. PAUL CEREMONIAL

After two days in St. Paul as the guests of Osman temple, the Duluth Shrine girls, their chaperones and about 40 members of AAD temple returned to this city last night on their special train, leaving St. Paul at 5:30 o'clock.

The Duluth guests were much feted by the St. Paul Shriners, who had turned over entertainment arrangements to a committee of women headed by Mrs. A. O. Eberhart and Mrs. G. Harvey Lewis. Luncheons, automobile rides, and a theater party on Saturday afternoon were among the social affairs given in honor of the girls.

The ceremonial of Osman temple took place at the Masonic temple Friday evening, following the traditional banquet given at 8:30 o'clock. The AAD temple Shrine girls gave the ceremonial program which has made them famous with Shriners the country over.

Those in the party were: Ruth Allen, Helen Benson, Grace Bergstrom, Miriam Bondy, Agnes Boss, Virginia Currie, Lois Curtis, Lily Jean Dinham, Gladys Dow, Helen Dryer, Clara Fider, Esther Gombert, Olive Gunderson, Alta Hallock, Mabel Harker, Myrtle Hobbs, Astrid Hovde, Marian Inzalls, Bertha Johnson, Esther Klatsky, Rose Klatsky, Eleanore Kraft, Lillian Laskey, Vernie Larsen, Marjorie McClenaghan, Grace McClenaghan, Nora McDunough, Annabelle McLeod, Marjetta Noller, Hazel Mofr, Merna Newell, Loretta O'Gorman, Mabel Olson, Susan Pastoret, Norma Patterson, Dorothy Pierce, Myrtle Pierce, Lillian Ramstad, Bertha Reed, Frances Sibbald, Elfa Smith, Ethel Smith, Margaret Swendby, Irene Wardell, Mary Whitcomb and Gladys Wonderly.