

MANY WEDDINGS FEATURE WEEK

Innumerable Brides Select August as Month to Exchange Nuptial Vows.

MUSICAL COMEDY PROVES SUCCESS AT BEMIDJI

Range and Northwest Society Is Returning From Lake Resorts to Open Homes.

The blushing bride and attendant affairs in her honor have been much in evidence during the week. August must be a favored month, for practically every city in the northwest has chronicled a number of pretty weddings, with innumerable showers, luncheons and dinners for the brides-elect. Interest at Bemidji during the week has centered around the musical comedy given as a benefit for St. Phillips church. At Hibbing the young people are planning the series of winter dances that is a feature of that city's hospitality. At the lake resorts of the north country a number of summer cottages are being closed and the corresponding number of town houses placed in readiness for the winter. There has been much informal entertaining for the students who are going to university and college to resume or begin study this fall.
