Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets

NOTE

That when we announce a new Warner style it means corset fashion is established.

That it means you can buy the latest Parisian design at our counter, cut and made in this country to suit the American woman's figure—as early as the Parisian woman can buy hers.

When a Warner corset appears it is a standardized style—when fitted it fashionably shapes the figure—when worn it is comfortable. When you discard a Warner, you discard it because you want another Warner—a fresh corset or a new Warner style. It has held its shape. It is as comfortable as the day you first put it on. This is the Warner story endorsed by us.

To Shape Fashionably, To Fit Comfortably and Not to Rust. Break or Tear.

Louis Lillenthal, postmaster at Deerfield, a new office recently created in the Ash Lake country, was a Virginia visitor on Friday and Saturday of last week. Mr. Lillenthal owns a fine piece of ground in that section, and has been exploring it with a churn drill for iron ore. He believes he has a mine on his place and his many friends in Virginia sincerely hope he has.

Art Couture, of the Virginia baseball team, won the prize offered by the Virginia Fur company for the player on the league team having the highest batting average for the season. Couture was leading the team at the close of the season, hitting better than 300, and accordingly received a fine seal-skin cap from the Virginia Fur company.

C. H. Rattinger, manager of the New Fay hotel, returned Saturday from a trip down the Great Lakes to Chicago and the Straits of Mackinac with the hotel men, who had been attending the Duluth convention. Mr. Rattinger says the hotel men enjoyed their visit to the northwest very much and that Duluth and the ranges will get some good advertising as a result. The trip down the lakes was made in pleasant weather and was also much enjoyed.

Art Couture, who played first base on the Virginia league baseball team this season, led the club in batting and was a universal favorite with the fans, left the first of the week for a month's visit at his old home at Rice Lake, Wis. Couture will be back with the Virginia team next year. He is a fine young man personally and as a baseball player was one of the hardest workers on the team in all sorts of luck. Couture was probably closer to the fans in Virginia than any man on the team and made many friends in Virginia.
