

NORMAL NOTES

A delightful musical program was given during chapel period on Monday. The pupils of the first grade, under the direction of Bertha Hopkins, sang "The Goldenrod," "The Marching Song," "The Giants" and "The Clapping Song," all by Mrs. Gaynor. The following program was then given by Louis Gomberg, one of Mrs. D. H. Day's pupils, and by little Miss Helen Hudson, who sang several little songs. The program follows:

(A) "Merry Post Boy" (Schytte), (b) "Two Studies" (Czerny), (c) "Happy Day" (Atherton). Louis Gomberg: (a) "Sandman" (Bilbro), (b) "The Surprise" (Bilbro), Helen Hudson: (a)

"Long, Long Ago" (Engelmann), (b) "Allegro from Sonatina" (Kuhlan), Louis Gomberg: (a) "Singing to Baby" (Bilbro), (b) "Naughty Kitty" (Bilbro), Helen Hudson: (a) "Tale of a Nest" (Mansfield); (b) "Folk Song" (Schumann); (c) "March Orientale" (Engelmann), Louis Gomberg.

Belle Maron was guest of honor at a birthday spread in the lunch room on Monday. The other guests were: Sarah Walt, Selma Oreckovsk, Sarah Kaner, Esther Klatsky and Florence Milavitz.

The senior class held a meeting on Monday and selected the class pin.

Meetings were held by both the Grey-solon and Thalian Literary societies during the week and it was decided by them to cooperate in publishing an annual this year. Work on it will be commenced immediately after the Christmas vacation.

A class in folk dancing has been organized by the kindergarten girls, who met on Tuesday for their first lesson.
