

GILBERT STUDENTS GIVE FINE PROGRAM

High School Pupils and Faculty
Members Take Part in Numbers.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

GILBERT, Jan. 31.—The home talent program given by the high school pupils and faculty at the high school auditorium last evening was a success and those in attendance enjoyed the following program which was one of the best given here:

High school orchestra, K. K. Tibblitts, director; vocal solo, "The Perfect Day," (Carle Jacobs Bond), by Miss Angela Schumacher; oratorical contest, "Defeat and Triumph," Tony Indihar; "Abraham Lincoln," Goldie Finn; "The New South," Clinton Bent; "Supposed Speech of John Adams," Henry Binney; quartet, "What from Vengeance," Messrs. Hursh, Pemberton, Pray and Newberry; dramatical contest, "Hagar," Gertrude Rubenstein; "The Soldier of Empire," Viola Kieren; "The Death Disc," Doris Gilbert; "Helen Thamre," Ethel Binney; trombone solo, Homer B. Hursh; Declamatory contest, "The Book Agent and the Bandit," Arthur Hill; "Papa and the Boy," Mildred Stevens; "The Dutchman's Serenade," John Downing; "Jathop Lathrop's Cow," Ina Beldo; selection from the High School orchestra; quartet, "Good Night," by Misses Gilmore and Winch, and Messrs. Pemberton and Newberry; Mrs. W. J. Dowling and Leonore Windhorst were the pianists; Miss Elizabeth Humphrey, directress of chorus; Miss Magdalene Feyereisen, instructor in expression; the judges of the contests were Supt. N. A. Young, James Boyle, Professor Boardman and Supt. M. A. Morse.

County Superintendent N. A. Young gave a short address and presented gold medals to Goldie Finn, winner of the oratorical contest, Ethel Binney, winner of the dramatical contest and John Downing, winner of the declamatory contest.