

SCHOOL ACTORS IN 'THE PRINCESS'

Next High School Class to Present Tennyson's Masterpiece on Saturday Night.

(By Bureau of the News Tribune.)
BERT, May 21.—The senior play of the Gilbert high school, "The Princess," by Alfred Tennyson, was given at the school auditorium on May 24, at 8:30 p. m. The play this year will be one of the best ever seen in the town and the students are having daily rehearsals.

The play is under the management of the department of oratory and elocution of which Miss Magdalene Feyerlesen is director. The play is under the supervision of Miss Sarah Humphrey and the training in the drills, etc., is under the direction of Miss Frankell Wade, principal director for girls of the local school.

The cast of characters: Princess Isabel Binney; Lady Psyche, Lady Blanche, instructors in university, Mrs. Moe and Hella Abrahamson; Mrs. Moe, daughter of Lady Blanche, Mrs. Hosking. Violet, a pupil, Mrs. Frederickson; Prince, Henry Florian, his friend and brother, Arthur Hill; Cyril, friend to Prince and Florian, John Hill; King Gama, father of Prince, Tony Indihar; Ispe, nobleman in Gama's court, William Medall; court attendants, Tony Erchul and Flur Sullivan; ladies of the court, Carolyn Hegler and Dora Hegler.

The costumes will be furnished by Mrs. Archina of Cincinnati, Ohio, and are beautiful.

The high schools have had an unusually successful year and Superintendent Newberry and Principal Tibbitts are planning for several innovations and improvements for the coming year of school in September.

The graduation class this year consists of the following: Hella Marie Abrahamson, Anton John Erchul Jr., Mrs. Florence Hegler, Anthony Hill, Tony Indihar, Jennie Johanna Moe, Mrs. Blaney, Blanche Elizabeth Erickson, Dora Louise Hegler, Mrs. Lazarus Medalle, John M. Downing and Arlene Hosking.
