NASHWAUK, May 21.—The Nashwauk Young Men's club is the latest organization started by a number of of the young men of the village for the purpose of bettering social conditions. About 50 signers have pledged their support and the following officers and members of committees were elected for the ensuing year: Fred Flink, president; H. W. Henesey, vice president; Stanley Clark, secretary, and Wilbur Ohles, treasurer.

Committee on rules—C. J. Carlson, chairman; H. T. LaFitte and E. S. Barnard.

House committee—H. W. Henesey, G. H. Chalmers and Stanley Clark.

Athletics—Nels Nelson, Albert Hagen and Joe Cloon.

Entertainment—H. V. Martin, G. H. Chalmers and Wilbur Ohles.

Membership—H. T. LaFitte, A. C. Stahl, C. J. Carlson and P. H. Tweed.

Finance—Alex Jaffe, D. Gleason and M. J. Donovan.

Publicity—Wilber Ohles, M. J. Donovan and Stanley Clark.

The members expect to get enough funds within the next week to fit out clubrooms over the Nashwauk Hardware company's store on Central avenue, or the Shellman building.
