

CHISHOLM CLASS IN COLLEGE PLAY

High School Seniors Are Planning Production of Three-Act Comedy in May.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

CHISHOLM, May 8.—The seniors of the high school, under the direction of Miss Mary L. Wright, are hard at work on the class play, "Mose," which will be staged the latter part of May. The play is a college comedy in three acts and the production bids fair to be one of the best ever given by the school. Several students who took leading parts in the operetta, "The Belles of Corneville," which was so successfully presented recently, will again appear in the class play.

The proceeds of the play will be used for the purchasing of a class memorial to be presented to the school. This is a continuance of a custom inaugurated in 1910 by the graduates of that year.

The cast of characters will be as follows:
