

WILL DEAL WITH KONKEL'S 'RECALL'

Socialist Orator at Cult Picnic Will Deliver Address on Candidates in Superior.

Edwin T. Harris, Socialist candidate at the last election for mayor of Superior, who will deliver the principal English address at the international Socialist picnic in Fairmount park Sunday afternoon, will deal with the proposed recall of Mayor Konkkel of that city.

Short speeches in Finnish by Leo Laukki, in Polish by Edward Miller, in Jewish by I. Jaffe and in Scandinavian will be given. Declamations and songs in these languages will be given. Music will be played by the Zenith City band. There will be games and sports.

At least 2,000 persons are expected to attend. The picnic is one of three affairs given annually by the city central committee of the Socialist party, the others being the celebration of International Labor day, May 1, and the Grand International ball in the early part of February.
