

rum and Miss Beatrice Berrum, violinists, and Mr. Walton, who will entertain at the Woodland cafe. The entertainments will be of a high order, the Misses Berrum being violinists of note.

Hotel Waitress Dies.

Miss Anna Winger, age 29, who had been employed as a waitress at the Latona hotel, East First street, died at St. Mary's hospital at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The body, which is at Crawford's undertaking rooms, will, today or tomorrow, be sent to Athens, Wis., for burial. Mrs. Parnell Ralph, 222 East Second street, a sister, will accompany the remains.

Hanford Funeral Held.

Funeral services for Herber H. Hanford, age 68, who died Tuesday noon, were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence, 2021 Woodland avenue, Rev. W. W. Lawrence of the Glen Avon Presbyterian church officiating. Interment was at the Forest Hill cemetery. The following were pallbearers: J. R. McKay, R. M. Hunter, G. W. C. Ross, W. J. McCabe and J. D. Stryker.

Blaze Costs $100.

An alarm of fire was rung in at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when workmen repairing the Palladio building detected smoke as they began tearing away the ceiling on the ground floor. A smudge, the firemen discovered, was smouldering in the ceiling in the rear of the Joseph H. Boznu curio shop. Falling plaster caused damage estimated at $100 to the stock of the curio shop, and the floor of the Anchor line offices also were slightly damaged.

Supports Indian Bills.

En route to his home at Sawyer, Minn., from Washington, D. C., F. H. Pequette of the Fond du Lac reservation was in Duluth yesterday. While at the national capital he urged the passage of several Indian bills that are now pending in congress.

Duluth Is Advertised.

Duluth, featured as the city of gardens, has been given publicity in 16 newspapers published in all parts of the United States. The Duluth Commercial club, through George D. McCarthy, assistant secretary, furnished material for the articles.

"The Iron Fist."

Under the auspices of the Socialist party, George R. Kirkpatrick, author and lecturer, will speak at the Auditorium Monday night. "The Iron Fist" will be the subject of the lecture.

Bookkeeper Asks $500.

When an accounting was made between J. L. Benz and the Duluth-Husa Copper company last summer $500 was due Benz, according to his complaint filed in district court yesterday. Benz was employed by the company as a bookkeeper between Jan. 1, 1910, and Oct. 1, 1912. He demands judgment for the sum mentioned.

Exam for Patrolmen.

Civil service examinations, pending the appointment of patrolmen in the Minnesota forestry service, district No. 3, will be held March 21 in the city hall at Cloquet.

Partners Land in Court.

Copartnership differences between Austin G. Meagher and Joseph G. Fogarty, realty dealers in Floodwood, has resulted in a lawsuit in which Meagher is demanding judgment for $967.83, which he asserts is the balance due him when their affairs were settled in October, 1912. Suit was begun in district court yesterday.

LAKE BREEZES

The Woman Question.

Did you attend the smoke and water sale at the Zenith Furniture store, 332 East Superior street? If not, do it now.

To Perform Autopsy.

An autopsy will be performed today by Deputy Coroner James McAuliffe over the body of Mrs. Minnie Esterlund, wife of John Esterlund, 124 South First avenue East, who died at her home Tuesday night.

Bury Train Victim.

All efforts to locate relatives having failed, the funeral of Frank Miller, age 38, who was killed by a Northern Pacific Railway company freight train under the Lake avenue viaduct Sunday afternoon, was held from Grady & Horgan's undertaking rooms yesterday afternoon. Interment was at Park Hill cemetery.

Local Boy Honored.

Vincent J. Fitzgerald, who graduated from the Cathedral high school with the 1913 class, has been elected vice president of the Nebraska Intercollegiate Oratorical association. He is now a student at Creighton university, Omaha.

Noted Entertainers Coming.

Manager Lewis of the St. Louis hotel has secured the services of Miss Dorothy Ber-