

MRS. J. D. VAN BAALEN IS SUED AT FRISCO

Widow Refuses to Recognize for Furs Husband Bought for Another.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—A widow was sued in the courts here today for a debt contracted by her husband for furs he bought for another woman, who afterward shot and killed him. The widow is Mrs. F. J. Toinette Van Baalen, administratrix of the estate of J. D. Van Baalen, formerly of Duluth, who was killed in October by Miss Leah Alexander of Los Angeles. The young woman was acquitted after a trial that attracted much attention.

The bill for the furs was $11,000. Mrs. Van Baalen refused to recognize the claim.
